PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

HER Majesty in Council was this day pleased, on a representation of the Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Council on Education, to appoint the Rev. Richard Wilde, Curate of St. Jude's, Englefield Green, Surrey, M.A., to be one of Her Majesty's Inspectors of Schools.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 19th day of June, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the eleventh and twelfth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church situate at Oughtibridge, in the particular district of Wadsley, sometime part of the parish of Ecclesfield, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church situate at Oughtibridge as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient, that all that part of the said particular district of Wadsley, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church situate at Oughtibridge as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Oughtibridge.'

"And, with the like consent of the said William, Archbishop of York (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing
Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Oughtibridge, being:—

"All that part of the particular district of Wadsley, sometime part of the parish of Ecclesfield, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, which is situate to the north-west of an imaginary line, commencing upon the boundary which divides the said particular district from the parochial chapelry of Bradfield, in the same county and diocese, at the junction of Myer's-lane with Worrall-lane; and extending thence northward along the middle of the last-named lane for a distance of thirty-six chains, or thereabouts, to a point opposite to a boundary stone, inscribed 'O. D. C. 1868, No. 1,' and placed on the eastern side of the same lane; and extending thence, first eastward to the said boundary stone, and then north-eastward, and in a straight line for a distance of twenty-two chains, or thereabouts, to the point in the village of Worrall, near Worrall Bridge, where the road leading from Wadsley to Worrall joins the lane which leads to the National School, and is called Lingard-lane; and extending thence in a direction rather more eastward, that is to say, nearly due north-eastward, and in a straight line for a distance of fifty-three chains, or thereabouts, crossing Mowson-lane, and the Wadsley and Sheffield turnpike road, and the River Don, to the mile post on the eastern side of the line of the Manchester, Sheffield, and Lincolnshire Railway, which indicates a distance of thirty-seven miles from Manchester; and continuing thence in the lastly-mentioned direction, and still in a straight line for a distance of fifty-five chains, or thereabouts (crossing Great Hollins Wood and Wilson Spring Wood), to a boundary stone inscribed 'O. D. C. 1868, No. 2,' and placed on or near to the boundary which divides the said particular district of Wadsley from the parish of Ecclesfield aforesaid at the point where Oughtibridge-lane joins Stubbing House-lane."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.
