

Upton Saint Leonard, of the said parish of Saint Michael, of the said extra-parochial place called or known as Wotton Ville, and of the said extra-parochial place called or known as North Hamlet, should be formed into a consolidated chapelry for all ecclesiastical purposes, and that the same should be assigned to the said church of Saint Luke, situate at High Orchard, as aforesaid.

“And whereas it appears that the right of presentation and appointment to the said church of Saint Luke, situate at High Orchard aforesaid, at present belongs to the Reverend Samuel Lysons, of Rodmarton, in the said county of Gloucester, Clerk—

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the the Right Reverend Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, as such Bishop, and also as the patron in right of his see of the rectory of the said parish of Upton Saint Leonard, with the consent of the Right Honourable Hugh MacCalmont Baron Cairns, the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, as patron on behalf of your Majesty, in right of the Crown, of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Michael, and with the consent of Higford Burr, of Aldermaston Hall, in the county of Berks, Esquire, the patron of the rectory of the said parish of Hempstead (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this representation) and with the consents of the Dean and Chapter of the cathedral church of the Holy and Indivisible Trinity, in Gloucester, the patrons of the vicarage of the said parish of Saint Mary-de-Lode (in testimony whereof they have hereunto set their common or capitular seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all those contiguous portions of the said extra-parochial place called or known as South Hamlet, of the said parish of Saint Mary-de-Lode, of the said parish of Hempstead, of the said parish of Upton Saint Leonard, of the said parish of Saint Michael, of the said extra-parochial place called or known as Wotton Ville, and of the said extra-parochial place called or known as North Hamlet, which are described in the schedule hereunder written, all which portions, together with the boundaries thereof, are delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be united and formed into one consolidated chapelry, for the said church of Saint Luke, situate at High Orchard, as aforesaid, and that the same should be named ‘The Consolidated Chapelry of Saint Luke, Gloucester.’

“And with the like consents (testified as aforesaid) and also with the consent of the said Samuel Lysons (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this representation) we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that the right of presentation and appointment to the church of the said consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, Gloucester, should belong to and be exercised by the said Charles John, Bishop of the said diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, and by his successors bishops of the same diocese for ever.

“We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order in respect thereto as to your Majesty in your Royal wisdom shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

“The consolidated chapelry of Saint Luke, Gloucester, being:—

“All those several contiguous portions of the extra-parochial place called or known as South Hamlet, the parish of Saint Mary-de-Lode, the parish of Hempstead, the parish of Upton Saint Leonard, the parish of Saint Michael, the extra-parochial place called or known as Wotton Ville, and the extra-parochial place called or known as North Hamlet, situate partly in the city and county of the city of Gloucester, and partly in the county of Gloucester, and wholly in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol, which said portions are comprised within and are bounded by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the particular district of Saint James, Gloucester, in the said county of Gloucester, and in the diocese of Gloucester and Bristol aforesaid, from the parish of Saint Mary-de-Lode aforesaid, at the point where Barton Lane is intersected by the line of the Dock Branch of the Midland Railway, and extending thence southward along the middle of the said lane, following thereby the boundary dividing the particular district of Saint James, Gloucester, from the parish of Saint Mary-de-Lode as aforesaid, to the junction of the same lane with the Stroud Road, and extending thence first eastward, then south-eastward, and then southward along the middle of the same road (thereby following in part the boundary dividing the same particular district of Saint James, Gloucester, from the said parish of Saint Mary-de-Lode, and from the extra-parochial place called or known as South Hamlet aforesaid, and in part the boundary dividing the said parish of Saint Mary-de-Lode from South Hamlet aforesaid) as far as the junction of the last-described boundary with the boundary dividing the said ‘South Hamlet,’ from the parish of Hempstead aforesaid, opposite to a boundary stone inscribed ‘G. St. L. C. C. 1868, No. 1,’ and placed on the western side of the Stroud Road aforesaid at a distance of one chain and a-half or thereabouts to the north of the bridge which carries the main line of the said Midland Railway over the Stroud Road aforesaid, at or near to the south-eastern corner of the close called the Home Ground, and extending thence westward to such boundary stone, and continuing generally in the same direction along the middle of the fences forming the southern boundary of the Sheephouse Farm (thereby following for the most part the boundary dividing the South Hamlet from the parish of Hempstead as aforesaid) to a boundary stone inscribed ‘G. St. L. C. C. 1868, No. 2,’ and placed at the western end of the fence forming the northern boundary of the close numbered 140 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said parish of Hempstead and the South Hamlet aforesaid, and upon the map hereunto annexed on the eastern side of the Bristol Road, and continuing thence first westward to a point in the middle of the said road, and then northward for a distance of thirty chains or thereabouts along the middle of the same road (thereby following the boundary dividing the said South Hamlet and the parish of Saint Mary-de-Lode, aforesaid, from the said parish of Hempstead) to a point opposite to a boundary stone inscribed ‘G. St. L. C. C. 1868, No. 3,’ and placed on the western side of the said Bristol Road, on the boundary dividing the South Hamlet from the parish of Hempstead as aforesaid, at the south-eastern end of the fence dividing the close numbered 108 upon the said maps, from the closes numbered respectively 236 and 228 upon the same maps, and extending thence north-westward to such boundary-stone, and along the said lastly described boundary (thereby following for the most part the middle of the last-mentioned fence, and crossing the Gloucester and Berkeley
