

3. In the case of a calf, at the expiration of seven days from the day of the first visit (both days inclusive):

and to report to the Local Authority on the state of health of the cattle in the cow-shed or place aforesaid.

6. If in the case of any animal, the Inspector, on each such visit, is satisfied and reports that it and all other cattle in the cow-shed or place aforesaid are entirely free from contagious or infectious disease, and that it is has not, since his first visit, been in contact with any cattle other than those in the cow-shed or place aforesaid, then the Local Authority shall inform the owner thereof, and shall communicate the owner's notice and the Inspector's reports to the Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis (and if the cow-shed or place is within the city of London, or the liberties thereof, then also to the Commissioner of Police of the City); and thereupon the animal may be moved alive out of the Metropolis at such time within three days after the second visit of the Inspector, and by such route, as in each case the Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis prescribes, on the identity of the animal to which the notice and reports relate being shown to the satisfaction of the Commissioner of Police of the Metropolis, or of an Officer of the Metropolitan Police Force appointed by him for the purpose.

7. If any animal is moved in contravention of any provision of this Order, the owner thereof, and the person directing or permitting the moving thereof, and the person or company in charge of or moving or conveying it, shall each be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order.

8. Expenses incurred by the Court of the Lord Mayor and Aldermen of the city of London (as the Local Authority for the city of London and the liberties thereof) in executing this Order shall be defrayed out of the Consolidated Sewers Rate.

9. The Metropolitan Board of Works shall cause this Order to be published in a newspaper circulating in the Metropolis; and the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis and the city of London respectively shall cause a copy of this Order to be affixed in a conspicuous place at each Police Station.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of July, 1868.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Lord Robert Montagu.
Colonel Wilson Patten.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. This Order shall take effect from and immediately after the twenty-sixth day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

2. Words in this Order have the same meaning as in The Metropolitan Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867.

3. Notwithstanding anything in The Metropolitan Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, or in any other Order of the Privy Council, cattle brought to the Metropolis by the London and North-Western Railway may be moved alive within and out of the Metropolis by the following route, that is to say:—

By the London and North-Western Railway to Willesden Station, thence by the West London Railway to the junctions with the London, Chatham, and Dover Railway, and with the London, Brighton, and South Coast Railway, at or near Long Hedge, and thence by either of the last-mentioned railways out of the Metropolis;

On the following conditions, that is to say:—

First. That cattle so moved shall not, while within the Metropolis, be taken out of the wagon in which they are brought into the Metropolis:

Secondly. That if any cattle so moved, accidentally or otherwise, while within the Metropolis, leave or are taken out of the wagon in which they are so moved, they shall not be placed again in the same or any other wagon on any of the said railways within the Metropolis, and shall not be moved alive out of the Metropolis.

4. If any cattle are moved or dealt with in contravention of any provision of this Order, the owner thereof and the person directing or permitting such moving thereof, or dealing therewith, and the person in charge thereof, and the London and North-Western Railway Company, shall each be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order.

5. The Metropolitan Board of Works shall cause this Order to be published in a newspaper circulating in the Metropolis; and the Commissioners of Police of the Metropolis and the city of London respectively shall cause a copy thereof to be affixed in a conspicuous place at each Police Station.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 24th day of July, 1868.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT.

Lord President.
Lord Robert Montagu.
Colonel Wilson Patten.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested, under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows:—

1. From and after the thirty-first day of July, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, notwithstanding anything in The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, or in The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order (Scotland) of September, 1867, or in any other Order of the Privy Council, whether general or relating to any particular port or place, cattle, the produce of Spain or Portugal, or of Normandy or Brittany, may be landed at any port in Great Britain, along the coast