

Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council, a representation, bearing date the sixteenth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church called Christ-church, situate at Appleton-le-Moors, in the parish of Lastingham, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church called Christ-church, situate at Appleton-le-Moors as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honorable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of York (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Lastingham, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church called Christ-church, situate at Appleton-le-Moors as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Christ-church, Appleton-le-Moors.'

"And, with the like consent of the said William, Archbishop of York (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Christ Church, Appleton-le-Moors, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Lastingham, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, which is comprised within, and is co-extensive with, the main portion of the township of Appleton-le-Moors, and within and with the contiguous territory constituting that portion of Spaunton Moor which is called Appleton Common, the whole of which said part of the parish of Lastingham aforesaid is bounded on the north by the township of Spaunton, in the same parish; on the east by the parish of Middleton, in the county nd diocese aforesaid; on the south by the parish of Sinnington, in the said county and diocese; and on the west partly by the parish of Kirby Moorside, in the same county and diocese, and partly by an imaginary line, commencing at a boundary stone, inscribed 'A. le M. Ch. Ch. D. C. 1868, No. 1,' and placed upon the boundary which divides the said parish of Kirby Moorside from the parish of Lastingham aforesaid, on the southern side of Green-lane, at its north-eastern end, and extending thence in a direction nearly due north-eastward, and in a straight line for a distance of fourteen chains (crossing Cater Beck) to a boundary stone, inscribed 'A. le M. Ch. Ch. D. C. 1868, No. 2,' and placed at the western angle of the close numbered 127 upon the Tithe Commutation Map of the said township of Spaunton, and upon the map hereunto annexed upon the boundary of the said township of Spaunton, which forms the northern boundary of the herein described part of the parish of Lastingham as aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of York.
