

AT the Court at Windsor, the 14th day of September, 1868.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the twenty-sixth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the fourth and fifth years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-nine; of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four; and of the Act of the twenty-third and twenty-fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and twenty-four, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty, in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls, in the new parish of Crakehall, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas the said new parish of Crakehall is situate within the limits of the ancient parish of Bedale, in the said county of York and diocese of Ripon, and is in the patronage of the rector for the time being of the said parish of Bedale.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us that the said new parish of Crakehall is ill-endowed, and that it is desirable that some additional provision for the cure of souls within the limits of the said new parish, should be made in the manner hereinafter mentioned.

"And whereas the rectory of the said parish of Bedale, is richly endowed and is in the alternate patronage of Henry, Baron Beaumont, an infant, and of Henry Monson de la Poer Beresford Peirse, Esquire, also an infant.

"And whereas Isabella Anne, Baroness Beaumont, Widow, and Robert Higginson Borrowes, of Giltown, in the county of Kildare, in Ireland, Esquire, the guardians acting on behalf of the said Henry Baron Beaumont and Henrietta Anne Theodosia Beresford Peirse, Widow, and the Reverend John George Beresford, Clerk, the guardians acting on behalf of the said Henry Monson de la Poer Beresford Peirse, Esquire, have expressed to us a desire that the arrangements for augmenting the income of the said new parish out of the revenues of the said rectory of Bedale, which are hereinafter recommended and proposed by us to your Majesty in Council, should be effected, and that in order to meet the requirements on that behalf which are contained in the hereinbefore firstly mentioned Act, the right of presentation to the said new parish of Crakehall should be transferred to the patrons of the said rectory of Bedale, to the intent that the said rectory and new parish may be in the same patronage.

"And whereas certain hereditaments and premises, situate within the said new parish of Crakehall, have become vested in us under and subject to the provisions of the hereinbefore mentioned Acts.

"And whereas the arrangements hereinafter recommended and proposed by us have been entered into upon the understanding that we would undertake and agree to pay out of the common fund, created by the hereinbefore firstly mentioned Act to the perpetual curate or incumbent for the time being of the said new parish of Crakehall until the next avoidance of the said rectory of Bedale, an annual sum or stipend of one hundred and ninety-eight pounds.

"And whereas such annual sum or stipend will, as soon as conveniently may be after the ratification of this scheme, be granted and secured by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal, and to be published in the London Gazette, in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon, and of the said Isabella Anne, Baroness Beaumont, and of the said Robert Higginson Borrowes, acting on behalf of the said Henry, Baron Beaumont, and also with the consent of the said Henrietta Anne Theodosia Beresford Peirse and of the Reverend John George Beresford, acting on behalf of the said Henry Monson de la Poer Beresford Peirse, of the same Reverend John George Beresford, as rector of the said parish of Bedale, and as such, patron of the said new parish of Crakehall, and of the Reverend Thomas Milville Raven, Clerk, the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said new parish of Crakehall (in testimony whereof they have respectively signed and sealed this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that upon and from the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such Order, the whole right of patronage of the said new parish of Crakehall, and of the nomination of the perpetual curate or incumbent thereof, and to the church thereof, shall be transferred to and be absolutely vested in, and shall and may from time to time be alternately exercised by, the said Henry, Baron Beaumont, and the said Henry Monson de la Poer Beresford Peirse, and their respective heirs and assigns, for ever, in a manner and order similar to that in which the patronage of the said rectory of Bedale is now exercisable by them.

"And we further recommend and propose, that upon and from the avoidance of the said rectory of Bedale which may happen next after the date of any Order of your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme, the tithes or rent-charges in lieu of tithes which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and which now form part of the endowments of the said rectory of Bedale, shall be transferred to and become absolutely vested in the perpetual curate or incumbent of the said new parish of Crakehall and his successors perpetual curates of the said new parish, in lieu of and in full substitution for and discharge of the annual sum or stipend of one hundred pounds now payable to the perpetual curacy of the said new parish out of the rectorial revenues of the said parish of Bedale.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Acts, or either of them, or of any other Act of Parliament.
