

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday April 30. to Thursday May 3. 1688.

THE following Addresse have been Presented to the King, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of Your ever Loyal and Dutiful Subjects, the Bailiffs and Burgeses of Your Ancient Borough of Droitwich in Your County of Worcester.

Great SIR!
WE being highly sensible of Your Majesties most happy and unparaleld Government, and with all Humility and Duty, implore Your Sacred Majesty to accept of our unfeigned and sincere Thanks for Your Majesties Princely Care and Affection, (by Your late Gracious Declaration, extensive not only to the Church of England, but to all other Your peaceable Subjects in their Religious Worshipp,) whereby we are obliged and resolved, that when Your Majesty, in Your Princely Wisdom, shall think fit to call a Parliament we can and will elect such Members as shall answer Your Majesties Expectations. And we do further pray for Your Majesties long Life and happy Reign over us, and the long continuance of them both. As a Testimony whereof, we have hereunto affixed the Common Seal of the Your Majesties said Corporation, the Six and Twentieth day of March, in the Fourth Year of Your Majesties most Auspicious Reign, Annoq; Domini 1688.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses of the Borough of Newbery in the County of Berks.
Most Dread Sovereign!

As we, not long since, prostrated our selves at Your Royal Feet, with our most humble and unfeigned Thanks for Your late Royal Declaration of Indulgence, so we are now come to render our hearty Thanks to Your Sacred Majesty, for Your more particular and special Favour towards us, in admitting us to a share of Your Majesties Government in this Your Borough, which, with the greatest Faithfulness and Duty to Your Majesty, we shall endeavour to discharge. And the Glory of Your Majesties Favours so much the more respects towards us, as much as we cannot be so immediately serviceable to Your Majesties Gracious Intentions, for the good of Your Subjects expressed in Your said Royal Declaration, being not in a Capacity to elect any Member of Parliament for this Your Borough; yet shall we not be wanting in using our utmost Endeavours to promote such Your Majesties Gracious Inclinations; and in Prayers to Almighty God, that he will dispose the Hearts of Your Great Council in Parliament (when Your Majesty shall be pleased to call one) to answer Your Majesties Purposes for the good of Your People. That God may lengthen out Your Majesties Reign over us, and grant unto Your Majesty eternal Life and Glory in the World to come, are, and shall be, the Prayers of Your Majesties most obliged and devoted Subjects. In Testimony whereof, we have caused our Common Seal to be affixed this Seventeenth day of April, Anno Dom. 1688. And in the Fourth year of your Majesties Reign.

Venice, April 23. The Consoy of which we made mention in our last is now ready to sail, being composed of 8 great Ships, on which are embarked 1500 Men of the Regiment of Wurtemberg, and 1000 Switzers: The rest of the new Levies will be likewise sent away as fast as they arrive at the Aden. The last Letter from the Levant gave an account, that the Doge Morosini had appointed the general Rendezvous of the Fleet to be near Acheru: and that he had distributed Arms and Ammunition among the People of Negropont; upon the Assurances they had given him of their Resolution to cast off the Ottoman Yoke, and to put themselves under the Protection of the Republick. We are told from Dalmacia, that the Turks had made an Inroad into the Province of Zara; but that the Morlaques, who had notice of their march, had so well received them, that many of the Enemy were killed and taken, and the rest put to flight. They write from Ragusa, that they had received advice by the way of Belgrade, that the disturbances at Constantinople instead of being appeased grow daily greater: That the Spahis and Janisaries were fallen out among themselves, and that their quarrel went so far that betraying themselves to their Arms, above 2000 were killed, and many wounded; That their Animosities still continued, and that the Sultan and his Ministers were so taken up to quiet these intestine disorders, that the preparations for the War were quite neglected: This is so considerable news that we cannot but with some impatience expect the confirmation of it.

Florence, April 20. The Senate of Venice have sent one of their Secretaries to congratulate their new Doge upon his Election, and to carry him the Ducal Cap, with the addition of 11 thousand Ducats to his Pension as Captain-General of their Forces in the Levant, from whence he may not return without the consent of two thirds of the Great Council. The Doge according to our last advices from those parts intends to attack either Gandia or Negropont.

Leghorne, April 20. The freshest Advice from the Levant confirm the former accounts we had of the great Confusion things were in at Constantinople. And add, that the Party which would set up Mustapha the Son of Sultan Mahomet, encreases daily.

Warsaw, April 7. The Council that was assembled at Grado being separated, after having resolved, That the Contributions of the Palatinates should be continued for the carrying on the War: And that another Diet should be call'd to meet here in November next. The Court parted from thence for Montepassi, to visit the new Church and Convent that was built there by the late Chancellor of Lithuania; after which the King intended to continue his Journey to Vilna; and the Queen would return hither. It was said that his Majesty had thoughts of going afterwards as far as Moscow, on the Frontiers of Moscovy; but that was not yet resolved on. Colonel Baranowsky, who had been several years a Prisoner at Caminiec, having paid his ransom, is lately come from thence, and reports, that the Tartars were drawing all their Forces together, to make a new Incurfion into the Territories of this Crown, designing to waste all the Country

Country between Geminic and Lemberg, that the Polish Troops, when they take the Field, may not find wherewithal to subsist; which being confirmed by other Advices, Orders have been given for the assembling the Forces of the Crown, that are quartered near the Frontiers, to observe the Enemies motions. There is a report, That the Poles have beaten a strong Party of Tartars, and that many of them were killed and taken Prisoners. The River Vistula is now open again, the Frost having lasted three months together without any Snow or Rain, which has made the Ground to dry, that they can neither plough nor sow.

Vienna, April 25. Their Imperial Majesties will go tomorrow to Laxemburg, and from thence to Neustadt, where they intend to pass a Fortnight or three weeks. Count Dunewaldt is declared by the Emperor Marschal de Camp General of his Armies. The News of the taking of Lippa and the defeat of Tockley, is not confirmed. Nor do we as yet hear from any Authentick hands, that the Imperial Forces commanded by General Marina are come before that place. They write from Vesprim, that the Count de Budiani has very closely block'd up the Fortrefs of Canisio; and that he had removed all the Country People, with their Families, Cattle, and Corn out of the Neighborhood of it; so that they were forc'd by the Turks to supply them with Provisions. The Duke of Lorraine is expected here the beginning of the next week; and the Elector of Bavaria about the middle of May. A great many Vessels pass daily down the Danube with Provisions and Ammunition: The Boats with Ovens, which are to pass to and fro, as the Forces move, to bake their Bread, are most of them ready; and all the other Preparations for the Campaign are in that forwardness, that it's not doubted the whole Imperial Army will be in the Field, and engag'd in some great Enterprize before the end of the next month. The Letters from Poland give us very good account of the State of things on that side.

Strasbourg, April 26. Monsieur de Lorraine arriv'd at Haguenaw the 24th Instant in the morning, and having view'd that place, went the same day to Fort Louis, where he was met by the Marquis de Chamilly Governor of this City; and parted from thence yesterday for Landsau. Prince Louis of Baden is now at Durlach, where he intends to spend a few days with the Margrave of Baden Durlach, and then return to Ratisbonne; and from thence to Vienna.

Cologne, May 4. Our Elector is now pretty well again, and walks about his Chamber. The Count de Bullach arriv'd at Bonne in the Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Hanover. The new Levies are continued here for the Service of the Emperor; and the Republick of Venice, has a great Army about the Brussels, May 7. The Elector of Saxony having spent three or four days in seeing the chief places of Flanders, came hither incognito on Wednesday last, a Merchant's House being prepared for him: About two hours after our Governour General went privately to visit his Electoral Highness, who desired to be treated during his stay here without any Ceremony. Yesterday his Excellency entertain'd him at Dinner; and at night the Prince de Vandemont gave his Electoral Highness a Ball and a Comedy, to which all the Persons of Quality in Town were likewise invited. And this day the Prince de la Tour entertain'd his Electoral Highness, who intends to part from hence in the Evening in his Excellency's Yacht for Amsterd. The Smith's Letters, which came in yesterday, inform us, That his Catholic Majesty has made the Count de Valsaline, who was before Lieutenant-General of the Dragoons, Lieutenant-General of the Horse in the Service of these Counties. That was believed the Count d'Orpessa would be declared Chief Minister: And that the Presidentship of Cyprus, with several other great Offices, would be suppress'd. These Letters add, that they had advice from Bamby, that the Moors were marching in a great Body towards Okan.

Hasselt, May 7. Her Royal Highness the Princess of Orange is expected hither this Evening from Utrecht; and the Prince is expected to morrow. The Elector of Saxony will be here the beginning of the next week. We are told from Amsterdam, that Vice-Admiral Allemonde sail'd the 4th Instant out of the Texel with 14 Men of War, to the rest of the Ships that are appointed to rendezvous at Schoonvelt.

Marseilles, April 29. Here is a report in Town, that the Chevalier d'Amfreville hath taken on the Coast of Seily, in his return from Alger, an Algerine of 26 Guns, and 280 Men, whereof about 30 were Christian Slaves: This News, it is said, was brought to Thoulon by a Bark that arriv'd there some days ago.

Paris, May 8. The King return'd the 6th Instant to Versailles from Marly; where his Majesty had pass'd several days. Monsieur de Croissy had on Friday last a very long Conference with Cardinal Ranuzzi, the Popes Nuncio at this Court.

Advertisements.

A Relation of the Journey, Entrance and Reception at Rome of His Excellency the Earl of Cathlemaine, His Majesties Ambassador Extraordinary to his Holiness. Now done into English by the same Author that published and wrote the same in Italian: With many Considerable Additions (and the same Copper Plates) And also to be sold by Mr. Williamsons at the Black Boy, against St. Dunstons Church, in Fleet Street; Mr. Moyses in the Ball Mall; Mr. Smith at the Feathers in St. Pauls Church-yard; and at Mr. Smiths at the White Lyon in Ruelle Street in Coven Garden; where all those Gentlemen, who have subscribed toward the Printing, may receive their subscription Books in Sheet or bound.

Stephen Gellor, a man of a middle stature, with a light brown Sweating, a Fleming bore, who for a short time served as a Corporal in the Troop of Horse commanded by the Honorable Bernard Howard of Norfolk, and was commanded by him to receive leave his Quarters till another Corporal was sent to take his Place, Cloaths, &c. went away on about the 14th past by break of day, unknown to any Officer of the said Troop, and took with him all the Kings Arms, except his Carabin, and such Cloaths and Horse Accoutrements as Corporals use when upon Duty, and a grey Gelding about 15 hands high. Whoever gives notice of him, so as he or what he carried away with him, may be secured, to the Officer commanding the said Troop, at his Quarters at Coventry, shall be very well rewarded.

This present Thursday, the 3d Instant, will begin a Sale at the Auction house in St. Albans Street of a Curious Collection of Italian Pictures, Prints and Drawings; the Sale for Prints at Ten in the Morning, and for Pictures and Drawings at Four in the Afternoon. A Catalogue of which has been published in Latin. The Prints are in the perfect Condition, and of the Best Masters, viz. Mark Antonios, After Raphael, and others: Together with several Modern Prints: As also a Fair Collection of Mexico Time Prints.

An Excellent Collection of Paintings, Drawings and Prints; with a vast Collection of rare Indian Shells and Insects, and other Natural Rarities, in a Cabinet consisting of 42 Drawers, to be sold by way of publick Auction: The Sale will begin this present Thursday the Third Instant, at Three of the Clock in the Afternoon, and continue till Six: And from Six till seven the Drawings and Prints will be sold; and to every day successively, till the whole be sold off, in Greenwich Street near Newport Market in So-ho, the 3d door from the corner directly over against the Golden Head, at Mr. Alexander Browns. To be managed with all Candour imaginable.

Henry Hayes, about 18 or 20 years of Age, found dead, a cut in his upper Lip, light brown hair, middle Stature (rather low) in a red coloured Cloak Riding Coat, lined with the same colour, a blue Livery lined with blue underneath, Pewter Buttons, Leather Breeches, blue or grey Stockings; went from his Master the 24 past. Whoever gives notice of him to Mr. Stephens at the Unicorn in Duke Street near St. James, shall be well rewarded.

Joseph Higilton, of middle stature, red Hair, a Wart upon his Forehead, a cat with his Eyes, wants a great Toe on his left Foot, freckles in his Face, wears a brown Serge Frock, and a white Hat, went away from the blue Ball in Eagle Court in the Strand. Whoever gives Notice of him (he being suspected to have stolen an Angel piece of Gold, a Gold Ring, and about Ten pounds in Silver,) to Mr. Jennings at the Roe Buck over against Salisbury House in the Strand, shall have a Guinea Reward.