[Extract from the Dublin Gazette of October 13, 1868.]

TRINITY COLLEGE, DUBLIN.

PURSUANT to the provisions of the Act 40 Geo. III., c. 84, and of the School of Physic Amendment Act, 31 Vict., c. 9, Notice is hereby given that the Professorship of Botany in Trinity College, Dublin, is now vacant, and that on January 23rd, 1869, the Provost and Senior Fellows at the Board-room of Trinity College will proceed to elect a Professor of Botany.

The fixed emoluments of the Professorship consist of £200 paid annually by the College.

All persons intending to offer themselves as candidates should send in their names and testimonials to the Registrar of Trinity College and to the Registrar of the King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland, on or before January 9th, 1869.

John Tolehen,

Registrar of Trinity College, Dublin.

Lombe Attwell, M.D.,

Registrar of King and Queen's College of Physicians in Ireland.

For further particulars candidates will apply to the Revd. Samuel Haughton, Medical Registrar of Trinity College.

SOLDIERS' BALANCES UNCLAIMED.

IN pursuance of the "Regimental Debts Act, 1863," notice is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for the War Department has available, for distribution amongst the next of kin, the sum of money set opposite to the name of each of the deceased soldiers named in the list which is published with this notice in the "London Gazette," and the "Army List," and is also to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.

Applications from persons supposing themselves entitled as next of kin should be addressed by letter to "The Under-Secretary of State, War Office, London, S.W.," and marked outside "Soldier's Effects."

No application can be attended to which does not state the dates and places of the soldier's birth, enlistment, and death, and the name of his regiment; his regimental number should also be stated if known.

Should these particulars furnished by the applicant not agree with the facts recorded on the War Office documents relating to the deceased soldier, the applicant will be so informed; but should they agree therewith, then within three calendar months the Secretary of State will furnish the applicant with the usual requirements needed for the proof of the alleged relationship.

The application must be authenticated by the signature of the applicant, and his name should be affixed in the presence of the clergyman, or one of the churchwardens of the parish, or a Justice of the Peace; the applicant's address, with the name of the post town, must also be clearly stated. No personal application can receive attention.

Further lists will from time to time be published, and therefore, it will facilitate the applicants' inquiries to give the number and date of the notice in which the deceased soldier's name appeared.—
Dated this 16th day of October, 1868.

By order of the said Principal Secretary,
EDWARD LUGARD.

NOTE.—A copy of this Notice is to be seen at the Quarters of the several Staff Officers for the Recruiting and Pension Service throughout the United Kingdom.
