*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
December 21, 1868.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, through the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Minister at Brussels, inclosing a Decree, dated 8th December, 1868, relative to the transport of petroleum, naphtha, &c., on rivers and canals in Belgium.

The following are the Articles of this Decree:—

The transport of petroleum, naphtha, and other hydro-carbons on the rivers and canals under Government management shall be subject to the following precautionary measures:—

ART. 1. Boats laden with materials of the above-named descriptions can only be stationed at places pointed out either by the local authorities or by the agents entrusted with the water police. Any stoppage without good reason in the boats' course is forbidden.

ART. 2. These boats must discharge their cargo immediately on arrival at their destination.

ART. 3. When "en route" these vessels must, as far as possible, keep out of the way of any vessels they may meet, as well as of banks upon which there are any buildings.

ART. 4. They must not have on board either fires or matches and they must be as open as possible, without cabins or any part covered in, in which explosive gases could accumulate.

ART. 5. They shall take precedence of other boats in passing through locks, with the exception of boats laden with gunpowder, gun-cotton, and explosive materials, to which the Royal Decree of the 15th July, 1859, is applicable.

ART. 6. Any infraction of the preceding regulations shall be reported by the agents entrusted with the "surveillance" of the rivers and canals and any other agents of public management having power for that purpose, according to the provisions of the law of the 29th Floreal in the year X, as well as the Decrees of the 16th December, 1811, and 10th April, 1812; and shall be punished by the penalties laid down in Art. 1 of the law of the 6th March, 1818, provided that the law shall not have stated the penalties which shall be specially applicable.

SALE OF ENGINES, &c.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, December 15,
1868.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 5th January next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to receive sealed tenders for the purchase of the

ENGINES, SPARE GEAR, &c.,

Taken from Her Majesty's ships "Comet" and "Cygnet," and lying in Portsmouth Dock Yard.

Persons wishing to become purchasers must apply to the Admiral Superintendent, Her Majesty's Dockyard, Portsmouth, for notes of admission to view the engines, &c.

Catalogues and conditions of sale may be obtained here, and at Portsmouth Dockyard.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty. It will not be necessary for parties tendering to attend on that day as the result will be communicated to them in writing.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for Engines of 'Comet' and 'Cygnet,'" and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACT FOR SALE OF OLD CAST IRON.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, December 9,
1868.

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Tuesday, the 5th January next, at two o'clock, they will be ready to receive sealed tenders or the purchase of the following quantities of

OLD CAST IRON ;

About 310 Tons lying in Woolwich Dock Yard, and about 236 Tons lying in Sheerness Dock Yard.

Persons wishing to become purchasers must apply to the Superintendents of the Yards for notes of admission to view the iron.

Conditions of sale may be seen in the Lobby of the Storekeeper-General's Department, Admiralty, Somerset House.

No tender will be received after two o'clock on the day of treaty, nor will any be noticed unless the party attends, or an agent for him duly authorised in writing, to make a deposit of £25 per cent. on the amount of the tender.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left hand corner the words "Tender for Old Cast Iron," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Storekeeper-General, Admiralty, Somerset House.

CONTRACTS FOR VINEGAR AND COCOA.

Contract Department, Admiralty,
Somerset House, December 18,

THE Commissioners for executing the office of Lord High Admiral of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland do hereby give notice, that on Monday, the 4th January next, at twelve o'clock at noon, they will be ready to treat with such persons as may be willing to contract for supplying and delivering into Her Majesty's Victualling Stores at Deptford, the undermentioned articles; viz. :—

Vinegar, 20,000 gallons (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 gallons); half to be delivered in one calendar month from date of contract, and the remainder in one calendar month afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Cocoa, 400,000 lbs. (to be tendered for at a rate per 100 lbs.); half to be delivered in three weeks from date of contract, and the remainder thereof in three weeks afterwards, or earlier if preferred by the party tendering.

Tenders may be made for the whole or any portion of the articles.

Separate tenders are to be made for each article.

Their Lordships reserve to themselves the power, when the tenders are opened, of contracting either for the whole, or for such part thereof only as they may deem fit, or for a greater quantity, or of not contracting for any, and also an unlimited power of selection in accepting the tenders.

The cocoa to be exempted from the Customs' duties, and parties tendering are to state where it is lying.

Samples of the vinegar (not less than a quart), which the parties tendering may propose to supply, must accompany their tenders, as the delivery will be required to be made in accordance with the samples which may be accepted, and the vinegar tendered is to be of No. 20, trade denomination. The casks will be supplied by the officers, but are to be sent for and returned to the Victualling Stores when filled, by and at the expense of the contractor.

Each tender for cocoa must specify the mark and landing number of each cask or package, the ship in which imported, and the country or place of its growth or produce, and an average sample (not less than 2 lbs. for each import mark) must be produced by the parties tendering, and not an average of different marks or several imports, and any parcel that is found not to be of the same mark or average quality as the sample tendered and accepted, will be rejected by the Officers.

No tenders will be received unless made in accordance with the above denomination of quantities and rates; and contractors in claiming payment for articles supplied are to make out their invoices in accordance therewith.

No tender will be received unless made on the printed form provided for the purpose, which may be obtained on application in the Lobby of the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House, where the conditions of the contract may be seen.

No tender will be received after twelve o'clock at noon on the day of treaty, and it will not be required that the party tendering, or an agent on his behalf, should attend at the Office on the day of contract, as the result of the offer received from each person will be communicated to him and to his proposed sureties in writing, when, but not before, the rejected samples are to be removed.

Every tender must be addressed to the Secretary of the Admiralty, and bear in the left-hand corner the words "Tender for _____," and must also be delivered at the Department of the Comptroller of Victualling, Admiralty, Somerset House.
