

a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that a letter from the Lady who is to make the presentation, stating it to be her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at the Drawing Room, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, February 12, 1869.

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness Prince Arthur will, by command of The Queen, hold Levees at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Friday, the 12th of March, and on Friday, the 19th of March next, at two o'clock.

It is the Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at these Levees shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEES TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCE ARTHUR, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levees, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at these Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 23rd day of February, 1869.

By a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

PRESENT,

Lord President.
Lord Privy Seal.
Mr. Secretary Bruce.
Mr. Forster.

WHEREAS the Lords of Her Majesty's Privy Council by their Orders, dated respectively the twentieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, the seventh day of March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, and the twenty-third day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, did direct that every vessel coming from or having touched at the Port of Saint Thomas, or at any port or place lying between longitude fifty-two and one hundred degrees West of Greenwich, and between four and thirty-two degrees North latitude, shall come to an anchor at such place as may be appointed by the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs, for the purpose of having the state of the health of the crew of the vessel ascertained before such vessel shall be permitted to enter port;

And whereas, in the opinion of their Lordships, the necessity for the above-recited restrictions no longer exists;

Now, therefore, the Lords of the Council, in exercise of the powers vested in them, do hereby revoke the restrictions imposed by the above-named Orders of the twentieth day of December, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six, and the seventh day of March and the twenty-third day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, are to give the necessary directions herein as to them may respectively appertain.

Edmund Harrison.
