

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday May 17. to Monday May 21. 1688.

TH E following Addresses have been Presented to the King, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Citizens of the City of Carlisle.

Dread Sovereign!
Being now at Liberty by the late Regulation made here, to Address our selves unto Your Majesty, we beg leave to return our late, but undesigned Thanks, for Your Majesty's most Gracious Declaration of Indulgence, which we will endeavour to maintain and support against all Opposers. We likewise thank Your Majesty for Your Royal Army, which really is both the Honour and Safety of the Nation; Let the Teckelites think and say what they will. And when Your Majesty in your Great Wisdom shall think fit to call a Parliament, we will chuse such Members as shall certainly concur with Your Majesty in Repealing and Taking off the Penal Laws and Tests, and not hazard the Election of any Person who hath any ways declared in favour of those Canibal Laws. Surely they do not consider what a Sovereign Prince by his Regal Power may do, that oppose your Majesty in so Gracious and Glorious a Work; A work which Heaven smiles upon, and will Reward with no less Blessing, we hope, than a Prince of Wales, that there may never want of your Royal Issue to sway the Scepter so long as the Sun and Moon endure. That your Majesties Reign may be long and Prosperous, and Blessed with Victory over all your Enemies, are the daily Prayers of, Great Sir!
Your Majesty's Most Obedient and Dutiful Subjects.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clark and Common Council of Your Majesties Ancient Burrough and Corporation of Scarbrough.

Most Serene Majesty!

TH E Union of York and Lancaster made the Inheritance of this Empire One, the Conjunction of England and Scotland made two Kingdoms one, but your Majesty's Declaration for Liberty of Conscience has made our Interest One: Thus our Blessings have risen by degrees to their last Perfection; Every Happiness was succeeded by a greater, and every succeeding Age strove, as it were to Out-vye the former. 'Tis true, our Civil Wars have been renewed in the time of our Fathers; England and Scotland have again been dis-united by an unnatural Rebellion, but Liberty of Conscience is so strong a Cement, that no Age shall be able to dissolve it; its firmness will increase by its duration; for all Men will endeavour to Propagate that Blessing which brings a visible reward along with it: And if the darling Argument of Sense prevail, we have already an ocular experience of our Profit; Men will not be more studious of transmitting a clear Title of their Possessions to their Children, than they will be of leaving an undoubted Inheritance of Trade, Society and Brotherly affection.

In the first place therefore on our Knees we thank the God of Heaven for Your Majesty; and in the next, with all Humility we thank Your Majesty, who as a true Father of Your People, have provided for them so rich a Patrimony of Immortal Happiness: 'Tis a Portion put out to us for our Posterity, which in every seven year's will double and redouble the Principal. God Almighty, as we hope and pray, will grant You us His Masculine of your Body; But you have already given us one of Your Mind, in this Your Gracious Declaration. 'Tis to Your Self alone, O Sacred Majesty, that we stand obliged for it. We own it not to the Counsel or Procurement of any other. None but a Wise and Gracious King could have found it out: None but a Catholick King has been able to effect it. We hope a Parliament will Concur to Ratify this Blessing, for this Blessing has, in a manner, Ratified it self by its own Success: 'Tis an act already pass'd in the Hearts of all Your Loyal People, and what it wants in formality of Law, is supply'd in the concurring Votes of all uninterested Men: It will spread like the Tree in the Vision of Holy Daniel, till it over-shadow the three Nations; And the Birds of the Air shall not only build in it, but also the Beasts of the Forest shall lye secure beneath it.

May Your Majesty long enjoy the fruits of so happy a Plantation; may it be serv'd about by the Care of the present Age, and made Sacred to all future time, as set by Your auspicious Hands: And as it is in our Power; so we solemnly engage our selves to return your Majesty two such Members to serve in Parliament, as shall Vote for Repealing the Test and all Penal Laws; in Matters of Religion; Laws which were begot under a doubtful Title, were bred up in Persecution, and would Subvert the Fundamental Freedom of the Conscience, which is Gods Magna Charta to all his reasonable Creatures. In Testimony hereof We have set our Hands, and affix'd the common Seal, this 28th day of April, in the fourth year of your Majesty's Reign.

Vienna, May 12. Their Imperial Majesties continue at Luxemburg to take the diversions of the Season; The Duke of Lorraine returned from thence yesterday, and will now in few Days begin his Journey for Hungary, to put himself at the Head of the Imperial Army, which will be composed of Forty Thousand men, without reckoning the Militia of Hungary and Croatia, In the mean time we have advice that General Caraffa is on his march to attack Illocke; and that after having possessed himself of that place, he will lay a Bridge over the Save for the passage of the Imperial Forces. General Caraffa has Orders to leave 3000 men in the two principal Places of Transilvania, and to march with the rest of the Troops that are Quartered on that side to the General Rendezvous. The last Letters from the Camp before Alba Regalis give an Account, That the Hungarian Troops Commanded by the Count de Budiani arrived there the 4th Instant, and took their Post near the River Sarowitz, the Enemy playing their Cannon furiously upon them; That the 5th our men advanced so near to the Ramparts of the Town, that the Cannon thereof could no longer annoy them; Upon which the Turks gave over firing, and presently after desired a Parley, which being granted, Hostages were exchanged, and some of the Principal Officers deputed on both sides entered upon a Treaty; Things were in this Posture when their Letters came away; and just now arrives here the Count de Ziebi with the Articles that have been agreed on for the Surrender of that place.

Vienna, May 13. On Monday last two Expresses arrived here one after the other from the Camp before Alba Regalis, with an account, That the Garrison upon the approach of the Imperial Troops, who posted themselves on the 5th Instant under the Walls of the Town, considering the condition they were reduced to through the want of Provisions; and that they were without any hopes of Relief, had, to obtain the better terms by an early Treaty, obliged the 3 Bassa's that Command there to desire a Parley, which being consented to by the Imperialists, and Hostages exchanged, they had begun to Treat about the Surrender of the place. And last night arrived here the Count de Ziebi, Lieutenant Governor of Raab, with the Capitulation that had been agreed on, being followed this Day by two Turks, Officers of that Garrison, who come to pray the Emperors ratification thereof. The Principal Articles are;

I. That the Turks shall deliver up the Town and Caf Alba Regalis, with all the Cannon, Mortars, ammunition, and other things thereunto belonging, without Fraud or Deceit.

II. That all those who being formerly Christians have become Turks within these 20 Years, shall remain in the place with their Families and Goods; but those that were so before that time shall have leave to march out.

III. That the Prisoners or Christian Slaves, whether Soldiers or others, shall be restored to their Liberty, with what ever belongs to them.

IV. That the Turks may take with them all their Children, even those they have had by Christian Women: This is to be understood of such Turks whose Fathers were Mahometans.

V. That the Garison shall march out with their Arms and as much Baggage as they can carry with them in 200 Waggon.

VI. And that being come to the Danube they shall be furnished with 70 Barks to carry them with their Baggage under a good Convooy to Belgrade.

This is a happy beginning of the Campagne, and gives the Imperial Arms opportunity of making great Progresses. For now Siget and Causa which have been blocked up for some time, will be pressed yet closer, and it's hoped with the same Success the Blockade of Alba Regalis has had; And the Siege of Belgrade will in all appearance be resolved on, the taking of which place will facilitate the Conquest of the other Towns and Fortresses the Turks remain possessed of in Hungary.

Hamburg, May 14. The Plenipotentiaries of Denmark at the Treaty of Alena, having in their Answer to the late Overture made by the Mediators declared, (as you have been already told) That the King their Master did consent that the Duke of Holstein Ploen might be treated with for the Lands he has in Holstein, in order to transfer them to the Duke of Holstein, upon condition he would accept in the Counties of Oldenburg and Delmenhorst any farther satisfaction he pretends to;
The Holstein Minister has replied thereunto, That the Duke cannot agree to the Condition annex to this Proposition, in case the Negotiation with the Duke of Holstein Ploen should succeed, for that the Reasons which made him refuse those Counties when offered by way of Exchange or Equivalent, will much less suffer him to accept of any thing there, when divided among several Princes; and that therefore he is necessitated to insist on his intire Restitution, and to desire for the gaining of time, and the avoiding more trouble to the Mediators, that no farther mention may be made of the Counties, which his Highness can never consent to.
We have an account from Berlin, That the present Elector had named the Baron Suerin to go for England in the Quality of his Envoy Extraordinary to notify the Death of the late Elector his Father, and to deliver into his Majesties Hands his George and Garter, he having been one of the Knights Companions of that most Noble Order. That there was a Discourse that some of the Principal Officers of that Court, who had served the late Elector, would be removed from their Employments. And that the Body of the Deceased Prince had been brought to Berlin where it lay in state. They write from Copenhagen that the Fleet of that Crown composed of about 25 men of War was ready to put to Sea.

Figue, May 25. The States of Holland are adjourned to the 16th of the next month. The West-India Company of these Countries have given in a second Answer to the Memorial of the Brandenburg Minister, on the subject of the Differences depending between them and the Subjects of that Elector Trading on the Coasts of Africa. We have an account from Maastricht, that the Elector of Saxony arrived there very privately the 20th Instant, and parted again the 22th on his way to Aix la Chapelle, having at his departure been saluted, with a treble discharge of all the Cannon of the place.

Brussels, May 25. Our Governor General has sent the Count d'Autel to Complement the Elector of Saxony at his arrival at Aix, and to invite him to our Great Feast, which will begin the 30th of this month. That the Imperial Forces were marching from all sides to the General Rendezvous near Essecke: And that Preparations were making for the Siege of Belgrade. We had by the last Post from Vienna the good News of the Surrender of Alba Regalis: The Letters from Bonne of the 22th Instant tell us, that the Elector of Cologne continued very weak.

Paris, May 26. The Court returned yesterday to Versailles from Maintenon. The Squadron Commanded by the Marechal d'Estrees, were told, at Sea. They write from Rome that there was a discourse of a new Promotion of Cardinals.

Plymouth, May 15. This day arrived here His Majesty's Ship the Swan, Captain Frowd Commander, from the West-Indies.

His Majesties Commissioners of Enquiry for the City of Lincoln and Town of Nottingham, the Counties of Lincoln, Nottingham and Darby, have begun their sitting at the Guildhall in the Town of Nottingham, and will continue there till farther Notice is given, to the end his Majesties Gracious Purposes towards those that have suffered for any matter relating to Religion since the 29th of September, 1677, may the sooner take effect, all Persons concerned are desired to bring to Mr. Jackson Clerk to the said Commissioners at his House in Nottingham the names of the Persons seizing or receiving any Money or Goods upon the account aforesaid, and all that are Deceased or Absent, their Relations are denred to appear for them.

Advertisements.

☞ Pulpit-Sayings, or, the Characters of the Pulpit-Papist examined. In answer to the Apology for the Pulpits, and in Vindication of the Representer against the Stater of the Con-troverisie. Sold by Henry Hill Printer to the King's Most Excellent Majesty, for his Household and Chappel at his Printinghouse on the Ditch-side in Black-Fryers.

☞ This is to give Notice, that the History of King Edward the Third, in large Folio, with curious Copper Plates, performed by Joshua Barnes, B. D. Fellow of Emanuel Colledge in Cambridge, is now finished according to promise, and may be had by the Subscribers and other Gentlemen, at John Harbo-rough's Doctor in Physick, living in great Knight-Riders Street, near Doctors Commons, London, and at Mr. John Hayes University-Printer in Cambridge. The Price, a Guinea in Sheets.

☞ On Monday June 11. will be Sold by Auction the Library of Dr. Will. Gullston, sometime Lord Bishop of Bil-toll, containing most (if not a Compleat Collection) of the Gr. and Lat. Fathers of the best Editions: Councils, Church History, Casuists, Commentators; also of Historical and Philogical Learning great Variety. Catalogues are given by Mr. Nott in Pall-Mall, Mr. Wilkinsons in Fleet street, Mr. Fox in Westminster hall, Mr. VWilliam Miller at the Acorn in St. Paul's Church yard, Mr. S. Crouch in Cornhill, Mr. Hall in Cambridge, Mr.
Shirly in Oxon.

☞ A Collection of Choice Books in Divinity, History, Poetry, Plays, Voyages, Travels, &c. will be sold on Thursday next the 24th of this Instant, at Richard's Coffee house in Fleet-street. The Sale will begin at 2 in the Afternoon. Catalogues are given by Mr. Brown at the Black Swan without Temple Bar, Mr. Fox in Westminster Hall, Mr. Miller in St. Pauls Churchyard, at Bridges Coffee house against the Royal Exchange, and at the place of Sale.

ALL Gentlemen, heretofore Scholars of the Biggin School in Hitchen in the County of Hertford, are desired to meet at the George and Vultur Tavern upon Ludgate Hill, on the 30 h of this Instant May, at 3 in the Afternoon, then and there to choose Stewards, and to consult other things necessary for the establishing an Annual Feast.

☞ Tolen the 22th Instant out of the house of Francis Froyzel a Packer in St. Nicholas Lane, London, near Lumbard Street, 8 pieces of mixt Serges, & xeter Wares. Whoever gives Notice of the said Serges, so as they may be recovered, to the said Francis Froyzel, shall have two Guinea's Reward.

☞ Off or Tolen out of the Duchesse of Portsmouth Lodgings in Whitehall, a little white Bitch, with long Tail and Ears, spotted with liver colour Spots, and a Bolonia Nole. Whoever brings the said Bitch to the Duchesse of Portsmouth Porter, shall have 10 s. Reward.

☞ Tolen or strayed about the 25th of April last past, out of a Meadow near Thame in the County of Oxford, a bright bay Mare about 25 hands, with a little Snip on the Nole, and a white Foot behind, about 10 years old. Whoever gives Notice of her to Mr. Gilbert Trowe in Thame aforesaid, or to Mr. Bellingar a Stationer near Cliffords Inn Gate, shall have 40 s. Reward and Charges.