REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS PRINCE ARTHUR, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at these Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 17th day of March, 1869.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourth day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen; of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for constituting a separate district for spiritual purposes out of the parish or parochial chapelry of Cleator, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that it would promote the interests of religion that the particular part of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Cleator, which is hereinafter mentioned and described (such part not at present containing within its limits any consecrated church or chapel in use for the purposes of divine worship), should be constituted a separate district in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"And whereas the Most Noble Richard, Marquis of Westminster, has paid to the credit of our account at the Bank of England, the sum of three thousand pounds sterling, in aid of the endowment of the district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the maintenance of the incumbent thereof for the time being, and we have in respect of such sum undertaken to provide and pay, in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May, and the first day of November, in each and every year, to such incumbent as aforesaid, so soon as one shall have been duly licensed in accordance with the provisions of the herein secondly mentioned Act, and to his successors, the yearly sum of one hundred pounds.

"And whereas we have also agreed and undertaken to make and pay out of the 'Common Fund' created by the firstly herein-mentioned Act to the said incumbent, when duly licensed, and to his successors as aforesaid, a grant of fifty pounds per annum, which said grant will be made by an instrument to be executed by us under our common seal in accordance with the provisions of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven.

"And whereas the said sum of three thousand pounds sterling has been so paid by the said Richard, Marquis of Westminster, upon the understanding and condition, that we should recommend and propose to your Majesty in Council that the whole right of patronage of the said district hereinafter recommended to be constituted, and of the nomination of the incumbent thereof, should be assigned to, and should be vested in, the Bishop for the time being of the said diocese of Carlisle, as the nominee of the said Richard, Marquis of Westminster, and the said Marquis has, by an instrument under his hand, nominated to us the Honourable and Right Reverend Samuel, now Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle, and his successors, Bishops of the same diocese to be such patrons accordingly, and it appears to us to be expedient that the said right of patronage should be assigned and vested in accordance with such nomination.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Carlisle (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this
