

Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that a letter from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, stating it to be his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at these Levees, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 6th day of May, 1869.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Acts, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, and under and in pursuance of The Consolidated Cattle Plague Order of August, 1867, do hereby define the following part of the port of North Shields, in the county of Northumberland, as a part thereof, within which foreign cattle may be landed (that is to say):—

All those premises situate between the river Tyne and a street called Clive-street, in the township of North Shields, in the borough of Tynemouth, in the county of Northumberland, consisting of a wharf or landing-place, warehouses, offices, and dwelling-rooms belonging to the Shields Steam Shipping Company Limited, and in the occupation of the said Company, Luigi Descalzo, Emanuel Descalzo, William Moor, Bridget Cartman, John Combs, and others, and also of a slaughter-house belonging to Ann Wilson, of North Shields aforesaid, Outfitter, and now unoccupied, and also of a Boat Builder's shop belonging to the said Shipping Company, and now unoccupied.

All which said premises are bounded on or towards the south-west by a steam flour mill, offices, and tenements or dwelling-rooms belonging to William Brown, Frederick Brown, and the trustees of William Brown and Richardson Brown, deceased, and in the occupation of the said William Brown and others, and by a dwelling-house belonging to John Brunton Falconar and Robert White Falconar, and in the occupation of James Murray and others; on or towards the north-west by tenements or dwelling-houses and premises belonging to the said Ann Wilson, and in the occupation of the said Ann Wilson, and of Matthew Calder and others, by part of a public lane or passage called Elder's Quay, leading from Clive-street aforesaid to the river Tyne aforesaid, by tenements or dwelling-houses and warehouses belonging to Robert Burn, and in the occupation of George Dixon and others, by a public-house belonging to Samuel Brown, and in the occupation of Joseph Grant, by part of a public lane or passage called Shepherd's Quay, leading from Clive-street aforesaid to the wharf of the said Shields Steam Shipping Company aforesaid; on or towards the north-east by a public-house called the Old Shakespere tavern, belonging to Edward Stobbs, and in the occupation of Nicholas Stobbs, and by warehouses and offices belonging to Collingwood Foster Jackson and John William Fenwick, and in the occupation of John Foster Trotter, James Trotter, Henry Trotter, and others, and by part of the said river Tyne; and on or towards the south-east by the said river Tyne; all which premises are coloured pink on the plan of part of the township of North Shields, deposited at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the borough of Tynemouth; and do hereby prescribe as follows:—

1. All foreign cattle landed within the said defined part of the port shall be slaughtered within that defined part, within ten days after the landing thereof, exclusive of the day of landing.

2. Cattle other than foreign cattle within the said defined part shall not be removed therefrom alive.

3. The Order of Council of the eleventh day of October, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, defining the part of the port of North Shields within which foreign cattle might be landed is hereby revoked.

Edmund Harrison.
