

Chapelry District of Saint James, Lower Holloway, in the said county and diocese, on the southeast and on the south by the new parish of Saint Clement, Barnsbury, in the same county and diocese, and on the remaining side, that is to say, on the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint Clement, Barnsbury, from the new parish of Saint Luke, West Holloway aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the Caledonian-road opposite to the western end of Saint James's-road; and extending thence northward for a distance of two hundred and eighty yards or thereabouts, along the middle of the said Caledonian-road to the boundary on the eastern bank of the line of the Great Northern Railway, opposite to the north-western end of Pack Horse-lane, which boundary divides the said new parish of Saint Luke, West Holloway, from the chapelry district of Saint James, Lower Holloway aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of London.

Arthur Helps.

AT the Court at Windsor, the 9th day of July, 1869.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fourth day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate within the limits of the parish or parochial chapelry of Burnley, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, situate within the limits of the parish or parochial chapelry of Burnley aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish or parochial chapelry of Burnley, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Andrew, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Burnley.'

"And with the like consent of the said James Prince, Bishop of the said diocese of Manchester (testified as aforesaid) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Burnley, being:—

"All that part of the parish or parochial chapelry of Burnley, in the county of Lancaster, and in the diocese of Manchester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish or parochial chapelry now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the north-west by the extra-parochial territory called or known as Reedley Hallows, in the county and diocese aforesaid, on the east by the new parish of Saint James, Briercliffe, in the same county and diocese; and on all other sides, that is to say, on the south and on the west, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said new parish of Saint James, Briercliffe, from the parish or parochial chapelry of Burnley aforesaid, at a point in the middle of the River Brun, at its junction with the stream called or known as Walshaw Clough Brook; and extending thence, south-westward, for a distance of twenty chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said river, to the centre of Sandy Holmes Aqueduct, which carries the Leeds and Liverpool canal over the said river; and extending thence, first north-westward, then south-westward, and then again north-westward, for a distance of one mile and a quarter, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said canal, thereby passing under the line of the East Lancashire Branch of the Lancashire and Yorkshire Railway, to the boundary which divides the said parish or parochial chapelry of Burnley, from the extra-parochial territory called or known as Reedley Hallows aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, there-
