Whitehall, October 18, 1869.

THE Queen has been pleased to present the Reverend John Barclay to the church and parish of Dunblane, in the presbytery of Dunblane, and county of Perth, vacant by the death of the Reverend James Ingram.

The Queen has also been pleased to present the Reverend Angus Gunn to the church and parish of Alloa, in the presbytery of Stirling, and county of Clackmannan, vacant by the death of the Reverend William Shaw.

By virtue of an Act passed in the twenty-second year of the reign of Her Most Gracious Majesty, Queen Victoria, intituled "An Act to extend the Act of the twenty-fourth year of King George the Third, chapter twenty-six, for issuing writs during any recess of the House of Commons, whether by prorogation or adjournment;" and of an Act passed in the twenty-sixth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, intituled "An Act to further limit and define the time for proceeding to Election during the Recess."

I do hereby give notice, that it hath been certified to me in writing, under the hands of two Members serving in this present Parliament, in the manner required by the said Act, that the Right Honourable James Moncreiff, late a Member serving in this present Parliament for the Universities of Glasgow and Aberdeen, hath accepted the office of Her Majesty's Lord Justice Clerk in Scotland, and has been gazetted thereto in the London Gazette dated the 15th day of October, 1869, and has thereby vacated his seat; and that I shall issue my warrant to the Clerk of the Crown, to make out a new writ for the electing of a Member to serve in this present Parliament for the said Universities, at the end of six days after the insertion of this notice in the London Gazette.

Given under my hand this eighteenth day of October, 1869.

J. E. DENISON, Speaker.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of "The Abandonment of Railways Act, 1850," "The Railway Companies Act, 1867," and "The Abandonment of Railways Act, 1869," William Henry Le Feuvre, liquidating partner of the late firm of Ordish and Le Feuvre, judgment creditors of the Beddgelert Railway Company, has made application in writing to the Board of Trade, setting forth that the said William Henry Le Feuvre is desirous that the railways by "The Beddgelert Railway Act, 1865," and "The Beddgelert Railway (Extension and Deviation) Act, 1866," authorized to be made; that is to say:— "By 'The Beddgelert Railway Act, 1865,' Railway No. 1—A railway commencing in the parish of Ynyscynhaiarn and county of Carnarvon, by a junction with the authorized line of the Aberystwith and Welsh Coast Railway, and terminating in the parish of Beddgelert and county of Merioneth, at a point being 310 yards or thereabouts of a place known as Gelert's Grave. Railway No. 2—A railway wholly situate in the parish of Beddgelert, commencing by a junction with and at the point of termination of the last-described railway, and terminating at the boundary wall between the Hafod-y-Porth and the Hafod-yllan Estate, north of the turnpike-road leading from Beddgelert to Capelcurig. Railway No. 3—A railway wholly situate in the parish of Ynyscynhaiarn and county of Carnarvon, commencing by a junction with the Railway No. 1, northwards of the hereinbefore described point of commencement of that railway, and terminating on the ballast-bank on the south side of the public pier wharf at Portmadoc, and west of the Festiniog railway station at Portmadoc. By 'The Beddgelert Railway (Extension and Deviation) Act, 1866.'"

"A railway, two miles and one furlong (or thereabouts) in length, wholly in the parish of Beddgelert, in the counties of Merioneth and Carnarvon, commencing by a junction with the authorized Beddgelert Railway, and terminating near the south-west end of Llyn Dinas on Hafod-yllan Farm."

"A deviation of the Railway No. 1, authorized by the recited Act (of 1865), between the points, measuring three miles and four furlongs, in the parish of Llanfihangel-y-penant, and five miles and five furlongs, in the parish of Beddgelert, from the commencement of the railway, on the plans deposited with the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Carnarvon in respect thereof"— should be abandoned.

And notice is hereby further given, that any person who may think himself aggrieved by such proposed abandonment of the said railways, and who may desire to object thereto, may bring such objection before the Board of Trade, by sending a written statement thereof by post, on or before the 16th day of December next, addressed to the Assistant Secretary of the Railway Department, Board of Trade, Whitehall, London.

Dated this 15th day of October, 1869.

NOTICE is hereby given, that a building, named St. Mary and Ethelburga's, situate at Station-road, in the parish of Barking, in the county of Essex, in the district of Romford, being a building licensed and used for public religious worship as a Roman Catholic Chapel exclusively, was, on the 5th day of October, 1869, duly registered for solemnizing marriages therein, pursuant to the Act of 6th and 7th Wm. IV., cap. 85, being substituted for the building known as St. Ethelburga's, at the same place, now disused.

Witness my hand this 8th of October, 1869.

W. H. Clifton, Superintendent Registrar.

Barnstaple Gas Company, and Barnstaple Gas Light Company Limited.

PURSUANT to "The Barnstaple Gas Act, 1869," notice is hereby given, that on the 1st day of October, 1869, the Barnstaple Gas Light Company Limited sold and transferred to the Barnstaple Gas Company, and the Barnstaple Gas Company purchased of the Barnstaple Gas Light Company Limited, the entire undertaking of the Barnstaple Gas Light Company Limited, and all their property, real and personal, and whether in possession or in action (except only cash in the hands of the Barnstaple Gas Light Company Limited and debts due to them on the said 1st day of October, 1869), upon the terms of the agreement set forth in the schedule to the said Act; and that for the purpose of completion of such sale and purchase, the Barnstaple Gas Company, on the said 1st day of October, 1869, issued to the Board of Directors of the Barnstaple Gas Company Limited, or as they directed, the 654 shares of Class A, mentioned in the said Act as fully paid-up shares, as the consideration for such sale and purchase; and the Barnstaple Gas Light Company Limited did, by deed under their common seal, dated the 1st day of October, 1869, and duly stamped for denoting the payment of the proper stamp duty payable by law in respect of such purchase and conveyance thereunder, convey to the Barnstaple Gas Company, free of all mortgage and other debts, the entire undertaking of the Barnstaple Gas Light Company Limited, and all their property, real and personal, and whether in possession or in action (except as aforesaid). And by the said deed the Barnstaple Gas Company assumed all the liabilities of the Barnstaple Gas Light Company (except only debts due from the Barnstaple Gas Light Company Limited up to the said 1st day of October, 1869), and indemnified the said Barnstaple Gas Light Company Limited, and all the shareholders thereof, against the same. —Dated this 13th day of October, 1869.

Geo. E. Kingson, one of the Directors of the Barnstaple Gas Company.

Jno. Norrington, one of the Directors of the Barnstaple Gas Light Company Limited.

Tolls to Let.

NOTICE is hereby given, that the tolls payable at the toll gates in Strood and on the new road from Rochester to Chatham Hill, in the county of Kent, will separately be let to farm to the best bidders for the term of one year, from the 30th day of November, 1869, at the King's Head Inn, Rochester, on Tuesday, the 16th day of November next, at twelve o'clock at noon.

No person will be permitted to advance less than five pounds at each bidding as to Strood Gate, and one pound as to New Road Gate, and whoever happens to be the approved bidder must at the same time give security, with sufficient sureties, to the satisfaction of the Commissioners of the said toll gates for payment of the rents by quarterly payments in advance. The approved bidder will be required to pay at the time of the letting one-half of the first quarter of a year's rent, and the remainder before the said 30th day of November.

The tolls will be put up at such sums as the Commissioners shall think fit.

For further information enquire at the offices of Mr. Hayward, Solicitor, Rochester.

By order of the Commissioners,
Wm. Webb Hayward, Clerk.

Rochester, 13th October, 1869.
