Board of Trade—Session 1870.

Falmouth Harbour.

Provisional Order.

Application for Provisional Order for powers to levy Tolls; to define, improve, widen, and deepen the Harbour of Falmouth, in the county of Cornwall; to constitute a Harbour Authority; to borrow Money; to make Bye-laws; and other purposes.

NOTICE is hereby given, that application is intended to be made to the Board of Trade, on or before the 23rd day of December next, by the mayor, aldermen, and burgesses of the borough of Falmouth, in the county of Cornwall (hereinafter called "The Corporation"), for a Provisional Order under "The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861," and "The General Pier and Harbour Act, 1861, Amendment Act," for all or some of the following purposes:—

1. To empower the harbour authority hereinafter mentioned to levy tolls, rates, and duties within the harbour of Falmouth, as defined by the proposed Order; to alter any existing tolls, rates, and duties; to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from tolls, rates, and duties; and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

2. To constitute the Corporation the harbour authority for the harbour of Falmouth.

3. To define the harbour of Falmouth, and to enable the harbour authority to improve, widen, and deepen the same, and the channel leading therefrom; the works for the above purposes will be executed within the limits of the harbour, as defined by the proposed Order, and will be situate in the bed or on the foreshores of the harbour of Falmouth, and in the parishes of Budock, Falmouth, Mylor, St. Just in Roseland, St. Anthony, and in the borough of Falmouth, in the county of Cornwall.

4. To enable the harbour authority to provide dredges, engines, steam vessels, lighters, and all appliances, tools, and materials necessary for dredging and improving the harbour.

5. To empower the harbour authority to borrow money for the purposes of the above works and other purposes of the harbour, on the security of the above rates and any other tolls or dues now derived or derivable from the harbour.

6. To enable the harbour authority to make bye laws, appoint a harbour master, and do all such acts and things as may be necessary for the general regulation of the harbour, and to appoint meters and weighers within the limits of the harbour.

7. To constitute the Corporation as the harbour authority the pilotage authority for the harbour.

8. To empower the harbour authority to lay down and maintain all such buoys, moorings, and other appliances and conveniences as may be required for the security of vessels within the said limits.

9. To incorporate with the proposed Order, in whole or in part, or otherwise to enable the harbour authority to exercise all or any of the powers of "The Harbours Docks and Piers Claus. Act, 1847," "The Harbours and Passing Tolls, &c. Act, 1861," "The Merchant Shipping Act,
