To the Next-of-Kin of CHARLES MILBORNE WEST, Deceased.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, in England, made in the matter of the estate of Charles Milborne West, late of Madras, in the East Indies, a Lieutenant in the 32nd Regiment of the Madras Native Infantry, then in the service of the Honourable East India Company, deceased, and in a cause West v. Fitzgibbon, and dated the 20th day of January, 1869, all persons claiming to be the next-of-kin according to the statutes for the distribution of intestate estates of Charles Milborne West, late of Madras, in the East Indies, a Lieutenant in the 32nd Regiment of the Madras Native Infantry, then in the service of the Honourable East India Company, who died at Madras, in the East Indies aforesaid, on or about the 29th day of September, 1838, who were living at the time of the death of the said Charles Milborne West, or the legal personal representatives of such of them as are since dead, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 15th day of May, 1870, to come in and prove their claims as such next-of-kin, or representatives, at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir William Milbourne James, situate No. 11, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, Middlesex, or, in the default thereof, they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order. It is believed there were three children only of the said Charles Milborne West, namely Francis Archer West, Charles Milborne West the son, and William Arthur West, and that the said Francis Archer West emigrated to America in 1859, and was last heard of in July in the same year, at the Battle of Richmond. It is also believed that the said Charles Milborne West the son, went to Calcutta, in 1859, and was a Pilot, and he was heard of in 1863, and again in 1866, and that he had been lost at sea, and the said William Arthur West, is believed to be now or to have been lately employed as a Ship Surgeon, in vessels trading between England and America.—Dated this 26th day of November, 1869.

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the matter of the trusts of the will of Baptiste Frere, deceased, an enquiry was directed "who is entitled to the £167 13s. 4d. reduced annuities in the said Order mentioned as Charlotte Frere's share, bequeathed by the said will of Baptiste Frere, and to the interest thereon, and to accrue thereon," the next-of-kin of the said Baptiste Frere, late of Croydon, in the county of Surrey, Gentleman, who died in or about the month of May, 1816, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 20th day of January, 1870, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor James, No. 11, New-square, Lincoln's-inn, Middlesex, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Order.
