*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
January 20, 1870.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, copies of two Decrees issued by the French Government respecting the temporary importation of cast iron and cotton tissues.

The following are the Articles of these Decrees, which were published on 9th January instant :—

I. ART. 1. Cast iron shall continue to be admitted under the system of temporary admissions which was instituted by the Decree of 15th February, 1862.

Cast pig iron, however, can only be imported under this system for the manufacture of cast wares.

ART. 2. Iron and other metals enumerated in Art. 1 of the Decree of 15th February, 1862, must be conveyed to the factories authorised to make use of them.

The Custom-house officers will take such measures as are necessary to ensure the arrival of these products at their destination.

ART. 3. Charcoal-iron cannot be represented upon re-exportation by an equivalent of articles manufactured from coke-iron.

ART. 4. The credit account allowed on importation will only be opened at the recommendation of the Consulting Committee of Arts and Manufactures, charged with the duty of examining into the relation which exists between the material imported and the products exported.

ART. 5. All the provisions of the Decree of 15th February, 1862, which are not opposed to the present Decree are to remain in force.

ART. 6. The importation credit accounts already opened will remain in force for six months, from the date of the present Decree, under the conditions laid down in the foregoing Articles.

II. ART. 1. Four months from the date of the present Decree, tissues of cotton, pure or mixed, shall cease to be admitted under the system of temporary admissions.

NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

*Department of the Accountant-General
of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy
Pay, Admiralty, Whitehall, S.W.,
January 17, 1870.*

NOTICE is hereby given to all persons interested therein, that preparations are now being made for the intended distribution of the tonnage bounty awarded for a slave dhow, name unknown, captured on the 16th November, 1867, by Her Majesty's ship "Penguin."

Agents or other persons having any just and legal demand, unliquidated, against the said bounty, are required to transmit the particulars of any such demand to the Registrar of the High Court of Admiralty, in order that the same may be examined, taxed, and allowed by that Officer, and paid under the sanction of the Judge of the said Court.

Due notice will be given, by future advertisements in the London Gazette, of the date proposed for the commencement of distribution; and, at the same time, the amount of an individual's share in the respective classes will be announced.

NOTICE OF INTENDED DISTRIBUTION OF NAVAL PRIZE MONEY.

*Department of the Accountant-General
of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy
Pay, Admiralty, S.W., January 19,

NOTICE is hereby given to the Officers, Seamen, and Marines, and to all persons interested therein, that the distribution of the bounties awarded for fourteen slave dhows, names unknown, captured between the 26th October and 4th November, 1868, by Her Majesty's ship "Daphne," will commence on Friday, the 28th instant, in the Prize Branch of the Department of the Accountant-General of the Navy, Admiralty, Somerset House."

Personal applications of persons entitled to share, and of agents and other persons holding powers of attorney, prize orders, assignments, or other instruments, by virtue of which they may be legally entitled to claim the share of any captor, serving in the above-named ship, are to be made at the Prize Branch of the Admiralty, Somerset House.

Any Officer, Seaman, Marine, or other person, who may desire to receive his share from the Collector of Customs or of Inland Revenue within the United Kingdom, is required to intimate the same by letter to be addressed "On Prize Business, to the Accountant-General of the Navy and Comptroller of Navy Pay, Admiralty, S.W." (enclosing his certificate of service or an attested copy thereof, excepting in the case of Commissioned Officers),—in which letter his own place of residence is to be precisely stated, as well as the place of the nearest Collector of Customs, or of Inland Revenue, from whom it would be convenient to receive such share of prize money.

The following are the shares due to an individual in the several classes:—

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Durrington, in the county of Wilts, and in the diocese of Salisbury, one capital sum of one thousand and four hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Durrington.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the benefice of Saint James, Birkenhead, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, one yearly sum or stipend of two hundred pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the twenty-ninth day of July, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of two hundred and three pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the rectory of Scaleby, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same rectory, and to his successors, a yearly sum of six pounds fifteen shillings and four pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said rectory of Scaleby, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of six pounds fifteen shillings and four pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein-mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said rectory, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction consisting of certain tithe commutation rents charge amounting to sixty-eight pounds eighteen shillings and ten pence, which have been permanently secured to the vicarage of Holme Cultram, in the county of Cumberland, and in the diocese of Carlisle, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Holme Cultram, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Barmby-on-the-Marsh, in the county of York, and in the diocese of York, and to his successors Incumbents of the same vicarage, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty-two pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the first day of May, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: And we do also hereby grant and appropriate out of our said common fund, to the said vicarage of Barmby-on-the-Marsh, one capital sum of one thousand and four hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of providing a parsonage or house of residence for the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification to be approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands, at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Barmby-on-the-Marsh: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and fifty-two pounds, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction, consisting of one acre and twenty-six and a half perches, or thereabouts, of land, with the messuage and buildings thereon, which has been permanently secured to the benefice of Saint Paul, Esholt, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said benefice of Saint Paul, Esholt, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one yearly sum or stipend of fifty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the said yearly sum or stipend, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said benefice, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Alford with Rigsby and Ailsby annexed, in the county of Lincoln, and in the diocese of Lincoln, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those tithe commutation rent charges, which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said tithe commutation rent charges to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors, for ever: Provided always, that the said tithe commutation rent charges shall be, and be held to be, in lieu of, and in substitution for, certain annual stipends amounting to seventy-one pounds and ten shillings, heretofore payable by us, or by our lessees, to the Incumbent of the said vicarage, in respect of certain property formerly belonging to the Bishoprick of Lincoln, and shall be also in lieu of and in substitution for an annual grant of one hundred and twenty-seven pounds, heretofore payable by us to the said Incumbent, under the authority of an instrument sealed by us and published in the London Gazette of the thirtieth day of October, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-six; And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said tithe commutation rent charges, as from the sixteenth day of April, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-eight.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby grant and convey to the Incumbent of the benefice of Saint Thomas, Stockton Heath, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same benefice, all that plot, piece, or parcel of land, with the messuage or tenement and buildings standing and being thereon, particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and vested in us, to have and to hold the said plot, piece, or parcel of land, messuage, or tenement and buildings, with the appurtenances thereunto belonging, to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Schedule.

All that plot, piece, or parcel of land, containing by admeasurement one acre one rood and seven perches, or thereabouts, situate, lying, and being in Stockton Heath, within Appleton, in the county of Chester, on the north-easterly side of the road there, leading from Knutsford to Chester, together with the messuage or tenement and buildings standing and being thereon, which said plot, piece, or parcel of land is delineated on the plan hereunto annexed, which said plan is a copy of a plan drawn in the margin of a certain deed of conveyance, dated the twenty-seventh day of June, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and forty-four, between Thomas Greenall, of Wilderspool, within Appleton, in the county palatine of Chester, Esquire, of the one part, and the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, of the other part, and which said deed is intended to be deposited in the registry of the diocese of Chester, immediately after the publication of these presents in the London Gazette.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant and convey to the Incumbent of the vicarage of Ugmaston, in the county of Pembroke, and in the diocese of Saint David's, and to his successors, Incumbents of the same vicarage, all those tithe commutation rent-charges formerly belonging to the dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Saint David's, which are particularly described in the schedule hereunto annexed, and are now vested in us, to have and to hold the said tithe commutation rent-charges to the use of the said Incumbent and his successors for ever: Provided always, that such tithe rent-charges so granted and conveyed by us as aforesaid shall be and be held to be charged and chargeable at all times for ever hereafter, in exoneration of all other property whatsoever now or formerly belonging to the said dean and chapter of the cathedral church of Saint Davids: And provided also, that the Incumbent for the time being of the same vicarage shall be entitled to receive from us, or on our account, the net amount of the rents, profits, and proceeds of the said tithe commutation rent-charges, as from the first day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

Schedule.

All those annual tithe rent-charges, amounting to two hundred and five pounds, arising upon and issuing out of lands situate within the parish of Uzmaaston, in the county of Pembroke, being the whole of the tithe rent-charge described in the tithe apportionment of the same parish.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby, grant and appropriate, out of our common fund, to the vicarage of South Stainley, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, one capital sum of three hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the costs of certain works approved by us in or about the parsonage or house of residence of the said vicarage; such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands, at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of South Stainley: Provided always, that the said capital sum of three hundred pounds shall be and be held to be in lieu of and in substitution for a portion amounting to ten pounds per annum of the grant of an annual sum or stipend of sixteen pounds thirteen shillings and four pence, which, by an instrument bearing date the tenth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, and published in the London Gazette of the eighteenth day of the same month; was made payable by us to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of South Stainley.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy.

INCOME TAX.

WHEREAS by an Act passed in the 28th year of Her Majesty, cap. 30, for granting to Her Majesty certain duties of Customs and Inland Revenue, power is given for increasing in certain cases the number of persons appointed under the provisions made by the Act passed in the 5th and 6th years of Her Majesty, cap. 35, Commissioners for the general purposes of the Income Tax Acts, and persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners in each district or division in Great Britain; and it appearing to the Board of Inland Revenue that the number of persons so appointed for the division of Stockport, in the county of Chester, is insufficient for the proper discharge of the business therein arising under the Income Tax Act, the said Board hereby authorise the increase in the number of the Commissioners for the said division to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen; and we, the undersigned, two members of the said Board, do hereby convene a meeting of the persons appointed for putting in execution within the said county an Act passed in the 38th year of the reign of King George the Third, intituled "An Act for granting an aid to His Majesty by a Land Tax to be raised in Great Britain for the service of the year 1798," being respectively qualified to act as Commissioners in the execution of the last-mentioned Act, to be holden at the Court-house, in Stockport, on Wednesday, the 9th day of February, 1870, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, for the purpose of choosing and appointing, according to the regulations of the said Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her Majesty, such number of fit and proper persons to be Commissioners for general purposes for the said division of Stockport, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners, as may be sufficient to increase the number of such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen, and of persons to supply vacancies amongst such Commissioners to any number not exceeding fourteen.

Alfred Montgomery.
Alex. Duff Gordon.
