The son of Thomas Williams, deceased.

In the Matter of the trusts of the Will of William Williams, deceased, and in the matter of an Act of Parliament made and passed in the 10th and 11th years of the reign of Queen Victoria, chapter 96, intituled "An Act for better securing Funds and for the relief of Trustees."

PURSUANT to an Order of the High Court of Chancery, made in the said matter, on the 16th day of July, 1869, any person claiming to be the son of Thomas Williams, formerly of Cardiff, in the county of Glamorgan, and who is supposed afterwards to have lived at Paddington, Cannon-row, Smith-street, and Manchester-buildings, Westminster, in the county of Middlesex, and who was at one time a Woollen Draper, and subsequently it is believed a Miscellaneous Dealer, and which son is described by the testator, William Williams, who at the time of his death lived at Cardiff aforesaid, as "my nephew, the son of my late brother Thomas," is, on or before the 18th day of July, 1870, to come in and prove his claim at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor, Sir Richard Malins, at No. 3, Stone-buildings, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, or in default thereof he will be excluded from the benefit of the said order. If the said nephew, the son of the said testator's brother Thomas, is dead, any person or persons claiming to be his child or children, or other issue living at his death, or if any such child or children or other issue have since died, then his, her, or their legal personal representatives are, on or before the said 18th day of July, 1870, in like manner to come in and prove their claim or in default thereof they will be excluded the benefit of the said order. Thursday, the 28th day of July, 1870, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said Chambers, is appointed for the hearing and adjudicating upon the said claims. The nephew who was son of the said Thomas Williams was supposed to be when a boy on board an American ship, and it is believed if he lived he went to one of the British Colonies.—Dated this 18th day of January, 1870.
