A T the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order made by the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty in Council, on the twenty-first day of May, one thousand eight hundred and lifty-five, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, did order that the Right Honourable Sir Edward Ryan, John George Shaw Lefevre, Esquire (now Sir John George Shaw Lefevre, Knight Commander of the Bath), and Edward Romilly, Esquire, or such other persons as Her Majesty should from time to time approve in the stead of them or any of them, should be Commissioners for conducting the examination of the young men proposed to be appointed to any of the junior situations in any of Her Majesty's Civil Establishments, and should hold their offices at the pleasure of Her Majesty:

And whereas by another Order made by Her Majesty in Council, on the twenty-sixth day of April, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-two, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, did order that the Right Honourable Sir Edmund Walker Head, Baronet, and the Honourable Edward Turner Boyd Twisleton should be appointed Commissioners in the place and stead of the said Sir John George Shaw Lefevre and Edward Romilly, Esquire:

And whereas, since the date of the said last-mentioned Order, the said Sir Edmund Walker Head has departed this life, and the said Honourable Edward Turner Boyd Twisleton has resigned the said office of Commissioner; and whereas it is deemed expedient that George Webbe Dasent, Esquire, Doctor of Civil Law, should be appointed Commissioner in the place and stead of the said Honourable Edward Turner Boyd Twisleton:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, doth order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said Sir Edward Ryan and George Webbe Dasent, or such other persons as Her Majesty may from time to time approve in the stead of them or either of them, shall be Commissioners, and shall hold their offices during the pleasure of Her Majesty, for the purpose aforesaid, the said Sir Edward Ryan being the First Commissioner, and the said George Webbe Dasent being the Second Commissioner :

And it is further ordered, that the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury do prepare and submit to Parliament an estimate for the remuneration of the second Commissioner aforesaid :

And Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, doth confirm the said Orders in all respects, so far as the same are not hereby altered.

A T the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 5th day of February, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

W HEREAS by an Act passed in the session of Parliament holden in the seventh and eighth years of Her present Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the Law respecting county of Lancaster had been customarily divided

"the office of County Coroner," it is (amongst other things) enacted that when and as often as it shall seem expedient to the Justices of any County, that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, or that any alteration should be made of any division theretofore made under that Act, it shall be lawful for the said Justices in General or Quarter Sessions assembled to resolve that a petition shall be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof shall be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such county as thereinafter provided, and (after providing that notice be given of any such resolution to such Coroner or Coroners, and for the further proceedings of the said Justices at the adjourned meeting to be held for the purpose of taking such petition into consideration, it is thereby further enacted, that such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, shall be certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the Justices present, when such petition , shall be agreed to, and that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and also any petition which may be presented to Her Majesty by any Coroner of the same county concerning such proposed division, or whenever it shall seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a writ, de Coronatore eligendo for the purpose of authorizing the election of an additional Coroner above the number of those who have been theretofore customarily elected in such county, to order that such county shall be divided into such and so many districts for the purposes of that Act, as to Her Majesty, with the advice aforesaid, shall seem expedient, and to give a name to each of such districts, and to determine at what place within each district the Court for the election of the Coroner for such district shall be holden as thereinafter provided, and every such Order shall be published in the London Gazette :

And whereas, by an Order made pursuant to the said Act by Her Majesty in Council, and bearing date the twenty-sixth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-one, after reciting that Her Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the County Palatine of Lancaster in Annual General Session of the Peace assembled had presented a petition to Her Majesty in accordance with the provisions of the said Act, duly certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of three of the Justices present when such petition was agreed to, and setting forth that it appeared to the petitioners to be expedient that the county palatine of Lancaster should be forthwith divided into six districts, for the purposes of the said Acts; that is to say, the districts of Lancaster, comprising the townships and places in the said Order mentioned, subject as therein mentioned; the district of Preston, comprising the townships and places in the same Order mentioned ; the district of Blackburn, comprising the townships and places in the same Order mentioned, subject as therein men-tioned; the district of Salford, comprising the townships and places in the same Order mentioned, subject as therein mentioned; the district of Rochdale, comprising the townships and places in the same Order mentioned; and the district of West Derby, comprising the townships and places in the same Order mentioned, subject as therein mentioned; and further reciting that the said
