

the said Joseph Hollis, in or about the year 1859, sold certain lands and premises known as Sidlow Mills, situate at or near Reigate, in the county of Surrey, forming part of the estate of the said William Bryant, and certain monies, part of the purchase-money of the said land and premises, have lately been paid into the said late Court, for the benefit of the creditors, if any, of the said William Bryant: Notice is hereby given, that all persons (claiming to be creditors against the estate of the said insolvent debtor, or who have cause to shew why the said monies should not be paid out of Court to the legal personal representatives of the said William Bryant) are required, on or before the 17th March, 1870, to send in particulars of their claims, in writing, addressed to "The Examiner in Insolvency, the London Bankruptcy Court," Lincoln's-inn-fields.—Dated this 22nd day of February, 1870.

A. S. TWYFORD, Solicitor to the said Hatton Hamer Stansfeld.

N.B.—Notice of a meeting for adjudicating on such claims will be issued to claimants.
