THE following Address hath been presented to the King, which His Majesty received very Graciously.

The humble and Dutiful Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Common Council, and Burgesses of Your Majesty's ancient and Loyal Corporation of Berwick upon Tyne.

Most Dread Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most loyal and dutiful Subjects, who most remote in Place, yet so early and zealous in Proximity of Affection as any other, being struck with a profound sense of the due Acknowledgment we as well as any other of your Majesty's Subjects owe to the great God of Heaven, and Your Majesty

Sacred Majesty as his Vicegerent over us, for your late & never too often to be commemorated most Gracious Declaration of free and General Indulgence, and the many Benefits and Blessings we daily receive thereby, do in most humble manner prostrate ourselves at Your Majesty's Feet, with all possible expressions of Gratitude; a Declaration which hath brought along with it as if were a New Charter to this our ancient Body, by which it hath incorporated the very Hearts and Affections of every Member of it, and united them all as the Heart of one Man, which is the best and surest way of Regulation; a Declaration by which the most dark sulen Clouds of Jealousies and Fears, in all unchristian Men, as to the free enjoyment of their Religion and Property, are dispelled from our Horizon, and in which Your unparalleled Grace and Bounty, like that universal Charity of the Sun, shines equally upon all, the unjust as well as the just; and by which, as in the miraculous Preservation of Government in the Ark, even Creatures of most contrary Principles live together in the quiet and peaceable Enjoyment of themselves under the Divine Influence of Your Protection.

Wherefore, most Dread Sovereign, to give You the Earnest of a greater Harvest, we hereby most heartily and sincerely declare, That we will on all occasions defend Your Majesty's most Sacred Person and Government with the utmost of our Lives and Fortunes against all Opposers whatsoever: And that whenever it shall please Your Majesty in Your Princely Wisdom to call a Parliament, we do hereby Testify and unanimously agree to choose for our Burgesses such as have Your Majesty's Gracious Recommendation, and shall concur with Your Majesty's known Pleasure in Annulling and Abolishing the Penal Laws and Test, that so Your said Gracious Declaration may likewise be the true Sense of all Your Subjects in an Act of Parliament.

And lastly, Great Sir, Let us amongst the first of Your Subjects, upon the long wish'd for blessed Occasion of the thrice happy Delivery of Your great and Royal Consort, Congratulate Your most Sacred Majesties, not only wishing long Life, Health and Prosperity to the Prince, a Blessing to these Nations, but shall also ever offer up our Prayers, That Almighty God will graciously bestow a Male Posterity from the same Royal Line to sway the Scepters of these Kingdoms to the end of the World.

In Testimony whereof we have hereunto affixed the Seal of the said Borough, this 16th day of June, in the Fourth Year of Your Majesty's Reign, Anno Dom. 1688.

Venice, May 11. We have advice by a Vessel that arrived here on Wednesday last from the Levant, of the departure of the Doge Morsini, with the Gallies of this State, from Porto Porro; and that it was conjectured he was gone towards Salonique, whither Signior Venier had taken his course some days before, with the Ships under his Command. The last Letters from Dalmatia tell us, That the Proveditore General Cornaro had sent the Marquis de Borri with some Troops towards Scardona, to observe the motions of the Turks, who he had advice were drawing together on that side; and that at the same time the Proveditore was making preparations to attack Clin, by the taking whereof the Venetians will become Masters of a Country of a large extent, and very fruitful. The Master of a Vessel that arrived here two days ago reports, That he met the last Convoy that went from hence for the Levant off of Corfou; and that 6000 Turks having lately shewed themselves in the Neighbourhood of Lepanto, Signior Navagier, Proveditore General of the Islands, was gone thither with 4 Gallies, to reinforce that Garrison.

Florence, June 15. The Courier that was sent from hence about 10 or 12 days ago to the Court at Munich, is returned with an Answer to the great Duke's Dispatches, relating to the Marriage of the Prince his Son with the Princess of Bavaria, which is now lookt upon to be as good as concluded. The Duke of Mantua has prepared a great Equipage, and is advanced as far as Venice, with a Design to go to the Campaign in Hungary.
