

Hungary. The Duke of Parma has raised some Troops for the Service of the Venetians. At Naples there has been a most terrible Earthquake, which has laid a great part of that City in Ruins: The Town of Benevento is quite destroyed, with the Death of near 7000 persons; and the City of Avelino, and other places, have likewise suffered very much. The damage they say amounts to above 50 Millions.

Vienna, June 20. The Duke of Lorraine's Illness continuing, there is now little appearance of his being in a condition to go into the Field this Summer; And therefore all the General Officers that staid here to accompany his Highness to the Army, are gone to their Commands, and Orders have been sent to General Caprara to begin the Campaign. There has been a discourse since the Dukes Sickness, that the Elector of Bavaria would command the Emperors Forces, though it seems there was no ground for it; For we understand by the Count de Caunitz, who is returned from Munich, that his Electoral Highness continues in his Resolution not to go to Hungary this year. We have an account that Lieutenant General Serini came to Buda the 19th instant, that the 14th and 15th he mustered the Bavarian Regiments of Horse and Foot, which arrived there some days before; And intended to March with them on the 17th towards Essecke. The Count de Thau partied from hence yesterday to command the Troops that are appointed for the Blockade of Camisa. They write from Upper Hungary, that the Imperialists had defeated a party of Turks that was Plundering in the Neighborhood of Debrezen. Prince Charles Philip of Brunswick is made Colonel of the Regiment of Dragoons, lately commanded by Colonel Detwin, who has quitted the same on account of his great Age.

Hamburg, June 27. We are informed by several Persons that are come from Holstein, That the King of Denmark arrived on Thursday last at Itzehoe; And that his Majesty intended to go from thence to Gluckstadt. to His Majesty, for the Honour he had been pleased to confer upon them: and this day the new Serjeants having met, and performed in Lincolns-In Hall (the Lord Chief Justice of England having been of the Society) the Ceremony of Counting, and had their Quoifs put on by the Judges, they walked from thence, being clothed in party coloured Robes, accompanied by a great many Gentlemen of the long Robe, out of the several Societies, in the usual manner, to Westminster-Hall, and all the Judges being seated in the Common-Pleas, they were led up severally by two Serjeants to the Bar, where they again Counted, and gave Rings, with this Motto, Rex, Princeps, & Christiana Libertas.
