AT the Court at Windsor, the 22nd day of February, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the thirteenth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words and figures following; that is to say:

'We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint Andrew, situate in the parish of Saint Helier, in the Island of Jersey, and in the diocese of Winchester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint Andrew, situate in the parish of Saint Helier aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Saint Helier, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint Andrew, situate in such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Jersey.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Samuel, Bishop of the said diocese of Winchester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at the said church of Saint Andrew, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices, should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that so long as the Reverend Philip Filleul, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory of the said parish of Saint Helier, shall continue to be such rector or incumbent, all the fees which may be received in respect of the publication, solemnization, or performance of the said offices at the church of Saint Andrew as aforesaid, shall be paid over by the minister thereof to the said Philip Filleul: and provided also, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint Andrew, Jersey, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Saint Helier, in the Island of Jersey, and in the diocese of Winchester, wherein the present incumbent of such parish now possesses the exclusive cure of souls, which is bounded on the south, on the west, and on the south-west, by Saint Aubin's Bay, on the north-west and on part of the north-east by the district chapelry of All Saints, Jersey, sometime part of the parish of Saint Helier aforesaid, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the remaining part of the north-east, and on the east, by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said district chapelry from the parish of Saint Helier aforesaid, at the point where York-street and Dumaresq-street are joined by the street or road called or known as Charing-cross; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street or road, to its junction with King-street; and extending thence, eastward, for a distance of one hundred and thirty-six yards, or thereabouts, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction, opposite to the southern end of New-street, with a certain new passage or street which leads into Broad-street, and which is called or known as the New Opening; and extending thence, southward, along the middle of the said passage or street, to its junction with Broad-street aforesaid, opposite to Le Sueur's Monument; and extending thence, south-westward, and in a direct line, across the last-named street, to its junction with Conway-street; and continuing thence, still south-westward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Bond-street; and extending thence, south-eastward, along the middle of the last-named street, to its junction with Pier-road; and extending thence, first south-eastward and then southward, along the middle of the last-named road, to the southern boundary of the said parish of Saint Helier, on the south-eastern side of Victoria Pier."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council; now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Winchester.
