PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of Her Majesty, chapter eighty-four, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the second day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter one hundred and thirteen, and of the Act of the seventeenth and eighteenth years of your Majesty, chapter eighty-four, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following scheme for making better provision for the cure of souls within the district chapelry or new parish of Saint James, Wetherby, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon.

"Whereas the said district chapelry or new parish was sometime part of the parish of Spofforth, in the county and diocese aforesaid.

"And whereas the Right Honourable Henry, Baron Leconfield, is the owner of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the rectory and parish church of the said parish of Spofforth, and is also the owner of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of the vicarage and church of the said district chapelry or new parish of Saint James, Wetherby.

"And whereas it has been made to appear to us, that the church of the said district chapelry or new parish of Saint James, Wetherby, is at present ill endowed, and that the said rectory of the parish of Spofforth aforesaid is competently endowed, and it has been represented to us by the said Henry, Baron Leconfield, and by the Reverend James Tripp, clerk, the present rector or incumbent of the rectory and parish church of the parish of Spofforth aforesaid, and we are of opinion, that it is desirable that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the said district chapelry or new parish of Saint James, Wetherby, by means of the apportionment of the endowment of the said rectory of the parish of Spofforth, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Robert, Bishop of the said diocese of Ripon (in testimony whereof he has set his hand and his episcopal seal to this scheme), and with the consent of the said Henry, Baron Leconfield, as such patron as aforesaid both of the said rectory and parish church of Spofforth, and also of the vicarage and church of the said district-chapelry or new parish of Saint James, Wetherby (in testimony whereof he the said Henry, Baron Leconfield has set his hand and seal to this scheme), we humbly recommend and propose, that from and after the day of the date of the next avoidance of the rectory and parish church of Spofforth aforesaid, all the tithes or rent charges in lieu of tithes (amounting in gross to the yearly sum of two hundred and forty-six pounds seven shillings and eight pence or thereabouts), now belonging to the said rectory and parish church, which arise within the limits of the township of Wetherby, which township was sometime part of the said parish of Spofforth, but now constitutes the said
