AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 19th day of July, 1870.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-third day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council, the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate within the limits of the parish of Hollington, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate within the limits of the said parish of Hollington.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent that it would, in our opinion, be expedient that all that part of the said parish of Hollington which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate within the limits of such parish as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Hollington.'

"And, with the like consent of the said Richard, Bishop of the said diocese of Chichester (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials, should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns, and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us the said Commissioners to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such Order with respect thereto, as to your Majesty, in your Royal wisdom, shall seem meet.

The SCHEDULE to which the foregoing Representation has reference.

"The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Hollington, being:—

"All that part of the parish of Hollington, in the county of Sussex, and in the diocese of Chichester, which is bounded on the south and on the east by the reputed parish of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle, Hastings, in the same county and diocese, and on all other sides, that is to say, on the north and on the west by an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the said parish from the reputed parish aforesaid, at the point near the Harrow Inn, where the old turnpike-road, which leads from Hastings, through Ore, to Battle, is joined by the old turnpike-road leading to Silverhill; and extending thence, north-westward, for a distance of twenty chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said first-mentioned old turnpike-road to a point opposite to the north-eastern end of a certain private road which leads through Stemp's Farm to the new turnpike-road which leads from Hastings to Battle; and extending thence, south-westward, to and along the middle of the said private road to its junction at or near to Stemp's Farm-house with the new turnpike-road, which leads from Hastings to Battle; and extending thence, south-eastward, for a distance of nineteen chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said new turnpike-road to its junction with Old Hollington-lane at the Side Bar; and extending thence, first south-westward and then south-eastward, for a distance of sixty-five chains, or thereabouts, along the middle of the said lane to the boundary which divides the said parish of Hollington from the parish or reputed parish of Saint Mary-in-the-Castle, Hastings aforesaid."

And whereas the said representation has been approved by Her Majesty in Council: now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said representation, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette, pursuant to the said Acts; and Her Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said diocese of Chichester.
