Board of Trade, Whitehall, October 10, 1870.

THE Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Hamburg, inclosing a Notification, of which the following is a translation, issued by the Rear-Admiral Commanding in-Chief the Prussian Naval Forces in the Baltic, respecting the re-opening, under certain restrictions, of the harbour of Kiel:—

(Translation).

NOTIFICATION.

On board H.M.S. "Pr. Adler," off Friedrichsort, September 28, 1870.

WITH the approval of His Excellency General Vogel von Falckenstein, Governor-General of the Coast, the navigation of the harbour of Kiel is hereby re-opened under restrictions ordered by the undersigned Admiral commanding, which appear necessary from the continuance of the war on one hand, and the security of the navigation on the other.

The following regulations are therefore issued and hereby made public:—

1. The passage of the barrier at Friedrichsort can only take place in fair weather and in daylight between sunrise and sunset.

2. Passing vessels are bound to stop at the guardships stationed without and within the barrier, and which carry a distinguishing black and white pennant, in order to receive the necessary instructions from the Commanders and to obtain pilots.

3. Should passing vessels need to be towed, steam tugs will be in readiness for that purpose.

4. The pilots for the barrier and the steam tugs are engaged by the Royal Navy, and have no claim to make for payment.

The foregoing regulations which are merely intended to avoid danger from the numerous lines of torpedoes, and which admit of no exceptions, must be obeyed by the master of every ship entering or leaving the port, no matter under which flag such ships may sail.

(Signed) HELDT,
Rear-Admiral and General Commanding
in the Baltic.
