By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby define the parts of the Port of Shoreham, in the county of Sussex, within which foreign cattle may be landed for slaughter, as follows:—

All that space in the parish of Aldrington, in the county of Sussex, bounded on the north by the cliff forming the northern boundary of Wish Wharf, on the south by the Aldrington Basin, on the east by a straight line running due south from the north-east corner of the Adur Hotel to the Aldrington Basin, and on the west by a line running due north from the south-west corner of the North Landing Wharf at Aldrington, to the aforementioned cliff, which space is edged green on the plan of the landing wharf, Aldrington, deposited at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Sussex:

Also all that space in the parish of Southwick, in the county of Sussex, bounded on the north by the cliff forming the northern boundary of Nicholson's Wharf, on the south by the Shoreham Harbour Canal, on the east by a straight line running due north from the eastern end of the Quay Wall of Nicholson's Wharf to the cliff forming the northern boundary of that wharf, and on the west by a straight line running due north from the western end of the Quay Wall of Nicholson's Wharf to the said cliff, which last-mentioned space is edged pink on the plan of Nicholson's Wharf, Southwick, also deposited at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Clerk of the Peace for the county of Sussex.
