

(e.) To widen and improve West Bromwich-road, in the said township of the Foreign of Walsall, on the north-eastern side thereof, from the western corner of a dwelling-house, numbered 20, in the occupation of Isaac Stanton, for a distance of 104 feet, or thereabouts, to a dwelling-house numbered 21, in the occupation of Peter Fullard; also from gardens occupied by Elizabeth Phillips and John Longstaff, for a distance of 80 feet or thereabouts, to a dwelling house in the occupation of Thomas Woodward, and to widen the same road on the south-western side thereof, from its junction with Spout-lane, for a distance of 170 feet or thereabouts to a dwelling house numbered 39, in the occupation of Sarah Dutton, all of which said streets, roads, lanes, and places, are situate in the parish of Walsall, in the said county of Stafford.

And to purchase by compulsion or agreement lands, houses, and buildings, for the purposes of widening, enlarging, altering, and improving such streets, roads, lanes, and places, and for other purposes.

To vary or extinguish all existing rights and privileges in any way connected with the lands, houses, and property proposed to be purchased, which would in any manner impede or interfere with any of the objects aforesaid, and to confer other rights and privileges.

To deviate laterally from the lines of the intended works to the extent shewn on the plans hereinafter mentioned.

To extend and enlarge the limits of the market place, within which the present market for the sale of meat, vegetables, and other like commodities is by the Act of 1850 authorized to be held, and to extend to such market, when so extended or enlarged, all the powers now in force for the taking, receiving, and levying of stallage, rents, tolls, and other charges for the use and occupation of, and sale within such market or market place.

To authorize the Corporation to let spaces within the said market or market place for stalls or standings for limited periods, and to fix the terms and conditions of such letting, and from time to time to fix and determine the limits and the situation and placing of all standing places, stalls, booths, waggons, carts, trucks, stands, and other conveniences and appliances for the sale and exposure of goods for sale within the said market or market place, and to provide, and fix such open spaces in the said market or market place free and clear from stalls and other obstructions as from time to time may be deemed necessary or expedient, and to fix and regulate the use, conduct, and management of the markets and fairs, the holding and duration of the same, the sale and disposition of animals and goods, and the conduct of persons having the charge thereof, and to prevent the bringing in, driving, or conveying of any diseased cattle or animal within the said borough or the limits of the said Act, and the exposure and offering for sale thereof.

To prohibit and restrict, or better regulate the hawking, sale, and exposure for sale on market days of any articles or things in streets and other public places not within the authorized market place, and to alter the times at which fairs are now held, and for fixing the times and providing for the holding of future fairs.

To authorize the Corporation to alter and vary the existing rents, tolls, stallage, and other charges now demanded or taken for the use of the markets and fairs, and to take other tolls, rates, and duties for the use of the markets and fairs as may be authorized or extended, or held under the powers of the proposed Bill, and to confer, vary, or extinguish exemptions from the payment of rents, tolls, stallage, and other charges, and to vary or extinguish any rights and privileges which can in any way interfere with the objects and purposes of the said Bill, and to confer, vary, or extinguish other rights and privileges.

To compel the owners of lands and houses in any street, road, or place (not being a highway repairable by the Commissioners) to sewer, drain, flag, pave, and macadamize such street, road, or place to the satisfaction of the Commissioners, and in default to enable the Commissioners to sewer, drain, flag, pave, and macadamize such streets, roads, or places, and to charge and levy the costs and expenses thereof on such owners.

To alter the mode of making, levying, and assessing of the improvement rates within the limits of the said Act so far as relates to tenements let to weekly or monthly tenants or ready furnished or in separate apartments, where the rateable value of such tenements shall be above eight pounds per annum, and to exempt and exclude such tenements, and the owners and occupiers thereof from the provisions of the 29th section of the Act of 1850, and to repeal, alter, or amend the provisions of such Act, so far as may be necessary for effecting such objects.

To prevent nuisances from smoke and noisome gases, gambling, pitch and toss, and offences against decency and morality, and other nuisances and offences within the said limits, and to make sanitary and other regulations and provisions for the good government of the district within the said limits and of the said borough.

To borrow further money for the several objects and purposes mentioned in the said Bill, and for the purpose of drainage and sewerage works and other general purposes of the Commissioners upon the security of their lands and property, and upon the improvement rates, and to charge such money when borrowed, together with the money already borrowed, and the interest on such moneys on such improvement rates, and to provide for the repayment of such moneys by a sinking fund or otherwise, within a limited period, and to exempt the property within the said limits from all liability to sewer rates.

To incorporate or extend and make applicable to the purposes and objects of the said Bill, all or some of the existing powers and authorities now vested in the Corporation and the Commissioners respectively, under "The Walsall Improvement and Market Act, 1848;" "The Walsall Improvement and Market Amendment Act, 1850," and the several Acts incorporated therewith, also all or some of the powers and provisions of "The Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1860 and 1869;" "The Railways Clauses Act, 1845;" "The Public Health Act, 1843," "The Local Government Act, 1858;" and all other Acts amending or extending all or any of the Acts hereinbefore specified, or any of the provisions thereof respectively.

And notice is hereby given, that duplicate plans and sections of the several street widenings and other improvements, and of the lands, houses, and buildings to be taken for the purposes thereof, together with a book of reference to such plans, containing the names of the owners or reputed owners, lessees or reputed lessees and occupiers of such lands, houses, and buildings, and also a copy of this notice as published in the London Gazette will, on or before
