

be exercised, such district to be comprised within a continuous red line to be drawn on an Ordnance map, showing part of the county of Stafford, to be deposited with the clerk of the peace for such county, subject to a power of restricting the district to be vested in the Conservancy Board by the Bill.

12.—To enable and require the Conservancy Board to preserve and maintain the purity of the water of the Upper Trent and its tributaries, and also (but subject to the lawful exercise of any rights of taking, impounding, or using the water) the flow of the water thereof.

13.—To prohibit or restrict the opening into the Upper Trent and its tributaries, or into any cut, dock, canal, ditch, or channel communicating therewith, of sewers, drains, pipes, or channels.

14.—To prohibit or restrict the discharge of sewage or other offensive or injurious matter into the Upper Trent and its tributaries, or any cut, dock, canal, ditch, or channel aforesaid.

15.—To authorise the stopping up by the Conservancy Board of the outlet of any sewer, drain, pipe, or channel, in respect whereof any offence against the Bill, or any breach of the provisions thereof, is committed.

16.—To prohibit or restrict the throwing into the Upper Trent and its tributaries of live or dead animals, filth, or noisome things, and the washing or cleansing therein of animals, cloth, wool, leather, skins, or other things.

17.—To prohibit the placing of any manure heap or other collection of offensive or injurious matter on or near the banks of the Upper Trent and its tributaries.

18.—To protect the Upper Trent and its tributaries against the placing therein of gravel, stones, earth, mud, ashes, rubbish, refuse, or other substance, or the doing of any act that would or might lead to the placing or coming therein of any substance as aforesaid.

19.—To prohibit or restrict the dredging, digging, or raising of substances from the bed of the Upper Trent and its tributaries, and to enable the Conservancy Board to license such acts in proper cases and to charge fees for such licences.

20.—To enable the Conservancy Board to levy a tax or rate on all or any of the lands within their district.

21.—To authorise and give effect to agreements between the Conservancy Board and any company, corporation, trustees, commissioners, undertakers, board, vestry, body, or person mentioned or referred to in this notice, with reference to any of the objects of the Bill.

22.—To enable the Conservancy Board to enter upon any lands within their district, for purposes of examination or inspection, in the cases and subject to the restrictions to be stated and contained in the Bill.

23.—To enable the Conservancy Board from time to time to make, alter, and vary bye-laws for any of the purposes of the Bill, either in addition to any provisions of the Bill, as hereinbefore described, or in lieu thereof, and for the regulation, management, and improvement of the Upper Trent and its tributaries, and for the government and regulation of the officers and servants of the Conservancy Board, and otherwise in relation to the Upper Trent and its tributaries.

24.—To attach penalties to the breach or non-observance of any of the provisions of the Bill, or of any such bye-laws, and to empower the Conservancy Board to impose penalties by such bye-laws.

25.—So far as may be necessary for all or any of the purposes aforesaid, to repeal, alter, or amend, or to restrict, or alter, the operation of the whole, or any part of the provisions of the following Acts, viz: "The Public Health Act, 1848," "The Public Health Supplemental Act, 1850 (No. 3)," "The Public Health Supplemental Act, 1855," "The Local Government Act, 1858," the following Acts confirming Provisional Orders under "The Local Government Act, 1858," viz., 25 and 26 Vict., cap. 25; 29 and 30 Vict., caps 24 and 106; and 32 and 33 Vict., cap. 124; the Public Act 2 and 3 Vict., cap. 15; and the following local and personal Acts relating respectively to the Boroughs of Newcastle-under-Lyme, Henley, and Longton, the towns of Fenton, Stoke-upon-Trent, Burslem, and Tunstall, forming the district called the Staffordshire Potteries, and the River Trent Navigation, viz., 59 George 3, cap. 71; 6 George 4, cap. 73; 9 George 4, cap. 28; and 2 and 3 Vict., cap. 44; and all other Acts and all Provisional Orders, Charters, or Grants, which might impede or interfere with the carrying into full and complete effect the objects and purposes of the said Bill.

26.—To incorporate all or some of the provisions of the Commissioners Clauses Act, 1847, and of the Lands Clauses Consolidation Acts, 1845, 1860, and 1869, and of the other Clauses Consolidation Acts, of 1845 and 1847 and other years.

Copies of the Bill will be deposited in the Private Bill Office of the House of Commons on or before the 21st day of December, 1870.

Dated this Tenth day of November, One Thousand Eight Hundred and Seventy.
