

appointed for such district, and that an Order in Council has been made for closing, with certain exceptions, the burial-grounds therein mentioned, within the said district, and praying that the said Local Board may be the Burial Board for the district of such Local Board.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty in Council is pleased hereby to give notice of such petition, and to order that the same be taken into consideration by a Committee of the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council on the seventeenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

And Her Majesty is further pleased to direct that this Order be published in the London Gazette, and in one of the newspapers usually circulating in the district of the Local Board aforesaid, one month at least before the said seventeenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit;

And whereas Orders in Council have been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned from the time specified in such Orders; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the time for discontinuing burials in the said churchyard be postponed;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the time for the discontinuance of burials in such churchyard be postponed as follows, viz. :—

In the churchyard of Saint John, Sheffield, to the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five, on the conditions specified in that part of the Order in Council, of the fourth of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-seven, relating to that churchyard.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act, passed in the session of Parliament held in the eighteenth and nineteenth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act further to amend the laws concerning the burial of the dead in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, from time to time, to postpone the time appointed by any Order in Council for the discontinuance of burials, or otherwise to vary any Order in Council made under any of the Acts recited in the said Act, or under the said Act (whether the time thereby appointed for the discontinuance of burials thereunder, or other operation of such Order, shall or shall not have arrived), as to Her Majesty, with such advice as aforesaid, may seem fit:

And whereas an Order in Council has been made, directing the discontinuance of burials in the churchyard hereinafter mentioned, from the time specified in such Order; and whereas it seems fit to Her Majesty, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, that the said Order be varied;

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by and with the advice aforesaid, is pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, as follows, viz. :—

That the time for the discontinuance of burials in that part of the churchyard of the parish of Cheadle, Cheshire, which is not to the south of the church be postponed, till after the thirty-first of December, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one; after which time burials shall be discontinued in that said part of the churchyard, except in now existing family graves or vaults for the burial only of the members of the families interred therein; and except in other graves not yet buried in,—no graves to be re-opened unless to bury another member of the family interred therein, or used, unless for the burial of parishioners of Cheadle. Every coffin buried in a vault or walled grave to be embedded in charcoal, and separately enclosed by stonework or brickwork properly cemented; and no coffin buried in an earthen grave to be less than five feet below the surface. No previously buried coffin to be exposed or buried remains to be disturbed.
