Vienna, Feb. 5. About 4 days lince arrived he e Monheur de Griffenklaw, Envoye from Hit Highmeis the Elector of Mayence, but has not as yet appeared at the Court, not is any day appointed for his Audience : 'ris believed his principal bufinels is to allure the Emperour of the friendfhip and lincerity of his Mafter to the Auftrian Family, which he will be ready to allith, in cale the Peace and Treaty for much talked of, take not fuch effect as is defi ed. Here is lately arrived a Courier from Spain, his bufinels not publickly known, but believed to be of great concernment, the Mazquifs de Grava, being immediately diffatcht, thither, daparting from thence the next day. Another Courier arriving from the Elector of Bavarit, brings news of the late deceale of Madam the Electrels.

Our Leavies are with much diligence carried on, 10000 men being freedlip to be railed in the Emperours hereditat ty Countreys, to which shall be added 4000 Neopoliums to act conjoyntly for the Defence of the Dutchy of Asilan, in cale of, an invalion.

Several Ministers ate here arrived from divers Parts of the Empire, to confult about the publick interest, in relation to the prefent posture of Affairs, especially in regard of Frances and the Baron of Blasserstorf is dispatched to those Princes ; whole Deputies made not their appearance here, to engage them to joyn their whole forces together for the defence of their Common Interests.

Yesterday arrived here the Count de Serin, Viceroy of Greatia, to give his Imperial Majesty an account of his Negotiation between the Pirnce Abaffy and Ragotsky, the former seeming not at all inclinable to peace, but rather endeavouring to interest the Grand Seignior in his Quarrel, to whom he has dispatched an Ambassadour with forty Persons in his Train, to attend him at Adrianople; where he is at present obliged to reside, by reason of the Plague, which rages with much violence in several parts of his Dominions.

Milan, Feb. 7. The Governour Don Louys Pons de Leon having taken effectual care for the fecurity of all his Garrisons and Forts, especially those upon the Frontiers; has now ordered new Levies to be inade to complete the Companies of the old Regiments belonging to this State, and for the ease of the Countrey forbears at prefent the raising of any other forces till he can be more fully informed of the defigns of the French, having allo declared to the Reprefentatives of the leveral Cities, that if the French do not atsempt them this Spring, he has Orders from Spain to fend the expected German Regiments lately railed in Germany, with fome other Italian Regiments that may be beft fpared, imo Catalonia. The Marquils de Balbaces is ordered to return speedily hither, where is also expected in few dayes the Count Galtozzo Trotti, to whole care are to be committed the Leavies of a Terse of Italian Infantry to be fent away for Catalonia, to which place t e French are fending confiderable forces : the Council of War has also given order ; that great flore of Ammunition be forthwith fent into Valenzaand Aleffandria; whole Garrifons are to be fuddenly drawn out for fervice, and fome of the new railed forces placed there in their room.

Hambourgh, Feb. 18. Some few dayes fince arrived here Count Otto Guillaume de Koningsmarke, long experted from swedeland. The Constable Wrangle is preparing to depart hence for Pomerania.

From Copenbagen we are told that the King is ill fatiffied with the great Field-Here shaeke, for refuging to be prefent at a Council of War, called there for the debating fome Points and Differes between his Majefty and this City; fuppoling him by his voluntary ablence to be too neerly concented for the intereft of this place; and had therefore given order for the feifing on his perfon, and that it was reloved in that Council that ten Men of War should be with all diligence fitted up, to be fent into the River of Elve, to obstruct the Trade of this City, till his Majefty shall have received fatisfaction in his Demands, whereof we expect the Confirmation by the next Letters.

From Lubec we are adviced, that the perfons there affembled to examine the pretensions of leveral trinces to the County of Oldenbourgh, after fome Debates are separated without any determination or resolution.

Letters from Elfingor, tell us that on the 28th paft was held a Solemn Act in the late Erected University of Lunden in Schozez, where after the Ringing of the Bells for a Congregation, the Souldiery both Hotfe and Foot were ranged in full Armes from the Governours Houfe, the Lord Guflavus Bannier, to the Church, after which began a Solemn Proceffion, led by the Marshall of hat Town, with all the Senators and Prefidents, whom followed 106. Students ; then 118, Priefts, and after them 12. Profesiors in their distinct Habits; then came the Vice-Chancellor Do-Ator Bernard Ulrick, attended on by 12 perfons in Blew Liveries, sfrer whom came the Lord Guftavus Bannier, reprefenting the Kings Perfon, with the Lord Magnus Durell, and leveral other Persons of Quality; after them fix of the Kings Bed-Chamber, bearing upon Blew Velvet Cushions the Doctoral Ornaments, Mace, Keys, Seals, Constitutions, and Priviledges of the University, which were placed upon a Table in the Church ; where after two Speeches made, one in the Swedish, the other in the Latin Tongue, the Conflitutions and P iviledges were folemnly read; which ended, the Vice-Chancellor created the Profeffor Bagge, Rector of the University; then was preached to them a learned Sermon by Dector Wainfirmpio the Biftop; which ended, they tung Te Deum, the Cannons at the fame time being thrice ditcharged about the Town: after this, they went thence to the Banquetting-Houle, where an excellent Feaft was provided for them, the reft of the Evening being spent in firing of Cannons, Mulick, Fire-works, and other divertifements.

Bruges, Feb. 26. This morning feveral expresses were brought to the Governour of this place, that the French are advanced with a confiderable Army and fome Cannon, with all other necessary provisions for a Leaguer, between Courtray and Roufelast; we are also told that at Lille, they are mounting feveral Cannon upon their Carriages, but as yet their defign is concealed : we have fome jealoufies that their first attempt may be upon Plasendale, as a fit pals by which they may at their pleasure march into North Flanders, but care is taken by the Governour thereof. to put it into a fit pofture to entertain them. The late fuccels of the French in Burgundy, makes their officers he e talk as high of their Kings intentions this next Campagne, as they do flightly of the Treaty, and give out, their Army will be ready to take the Field by the beginning of the next month, in purfuit of the Conqueits they have already began.

From Bruffels they write, that His Excellency the Marquifs de Caftel Rodrigo continues still at Antwerp, having lettled his returns of Money from Spain, and is dally giving out Commissions for New Leavies.
