LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

ORDER SETTLING THE BOUNDARIES OF THE DISTRICT OF TETTENHALL AND COMPTON, IN THE COUNTY OF STAFFORD, FOR THE PURPOSES OF THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858.

WHEREAS a petition has been duly presented to me, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, from owners and ratepayers resident within the boundaries of a proposed district of Tettenhall and Compton, in the parish of Tettenhall, in the county of Stafford, praying me to settle the boundaries of such district for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858.

And whereas the said petition was duly signed, as required by the said Act, and set forth, likewise, the proposed boundaries of the district sought to be formed under its provisions; and inquiry has now been made by Robert Morgan, Esquire, the Inspector appointed by me for such purpose, and he has reported to me thereon.

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State as aforesaid, having taken the said Petition and Report into consideration, do hereby, in pursuance of the powers vested in me by the Local Government Act, 1858, make order as follows:—

1. That from and after the date of this present Order, the boundaries hereinafter set forth and described and delineated on the plan referred to in, and accompanying, the Inspector's Report, dated the 26th day of January, 1871, form and constitute the boundaries of the district to be called the "Tettenhall and Compton District," for the purposes of the Local Government Act, 1858; and that the parts included in such boundaries so described and delineated shall, for the purposes of such Act, be deemed to be a place having a known and defined boundary, and may adopt the said Act accordingly.

The aforesaid boundaries commence at the point A (on the plan of the district which accompanies the Inspector's report), on the brook course that here forms the boundary between the parishes of Wolverhampton and Tettenhall; thence, westward, along the said brook course to B, on the Bell-lane Bridge at Wightwick; thence, northward, along the west side of the said Bell-lane, and including it to C, at Long Lake Bridge, over the watercourse called "The Penk;" thence, eastward, along the said watercourse to D, on the north side of Green-lane; thence, eastward, along the south and east sides of field numbered 1081, and east side of field numbered 1082, to E, at Red House-lane; thence, eastward, along the north side of plot numbered 136, and field numbered 137, to F; thence crossing Red House-lane and eastward along the north side of the public footway that divides fields numbered 1129 and 132 to G, on the Holyhead Turnpike-road; thence crossing the said turnpike-road and eastward along the south side of fields numbered 1132, 1135, 1136, and 1137, to H, on the road leading from Tettenhall to the Wergs; thence crossing the said road and eastward along the south side of the fields numbered 1151, 1152, 1155, and 1182, to I, at Stockwell-lane; thence, south-eastward, along the north side of the said lane, and including it to the Codsall-road; thence crossing this road and eastward along the north side of Sandy-lane, and including it to K, at the junction with Aldersley-lane; thence crossing Aldersley-lane and north-eastward along the north and east sides of field numbered 1376 to the starting point at A, thus completing the boundaries.

2. That Mr. Edwin Pritchard, of Tettenhall, be Summoning Officer, and take forthwith all such steps as may be necessary, under the hereinbefore recited Act, for convening a meeting of the ratepayers of the said district of Tettenhall and Compton to decide as to the adoption of the Local Government Act, 1858, within the boundaries of such district, as fixed and settled by this Order. And in case of the failure or inability of the said Edwin Pritchard to discharge such duty of Summoning Officer, that Mr. Robert Henry Masfen, of Pendeford, Tettenhall, act in his stead.

Given under my hand this 30th day of January, 1871.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

EDW. BERNARD,
Inspector-General.

Blackfriars Bridge Bonds.

IN pursuance of an Act of Parliament, made and passed in the fourth year of the reign of His late Majesty William the Fourth, cap. 118, intituled "An Act for raising a sum of money for the repair of Blackfriars Bridge," and in obedience to an order of the Bridge-house Estates Committee of the Corporation of the City of London, notice is hereby given, that it is their intention to redeem the annuity or annual sum of £280, further part of an annuity or annual sum of £400, granted in respect of a sum of £10,000, advanced by virtue of the said Act, and secured by a bond or obligation under the common seal of the said city, bearing date the 14th March, 1839, and numbered 4. And I do hereby give notice, that (in pursuance of the provisions of the said Act), at the end of six calendar months next after notice of such intention shall have been given, in the manner by the said Act directed, upon payment or tender of the sum of £7,000, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sum of £280 up to the day of such payment or tender, to or for the person or persons then entitled thereto, at my office of Chamberlain of the said city, in the Guildhall of the said city, the said annual sum of £280 will cease and determine. Nevertheless, such person or persons, at any time after this notice, and before the end of the said six calendar months, will be entitled, at the expiration of fourteen days next after a declaration, in writing, of his, her, or their intention to receive the same, shall have been delivered at the said office (such declaration being delivered between the hours of ten in the morning and three in the afternoon), to be paid at the said office, the said sum of £7,000, together with a proportionate part of the said annual sum of £280 up to the day expressed in such declaration for receiving the same, and the said annual sum of £280 will, on the day specified in such declaration for payment, cease and determine.

Benjamin Scott, Chamberlain.

Chamber of London, Guildhall,
