

have Admiralty jurisdiction, and that the said Court should have assigned to it, as its district for Admiralty purposes, the districts of the County Court of Essex, holden at Rochford, Brentwood, and Romford; of the County Court of Kent, holden at Dartford, Gravesend, Greenwich, and Woolwich; of the Southwark County Court of Surrey; and of the Bow and Whitechapel County Courts of Middlesex; and that the City of London Court, appointed by such Order to have Admiralty jurisdiction, should cease to have such jurisdiction.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty having taken the said representation into consideration, is pleased, by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, to order and appoint, and it is hereby ordered and appointed, that from and after the thirtieth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, the Whitechapel County Court of Middlesex shall have Admiralty jurisdiction, and shall have assigned to it, as its district for Admiralty purposes, the districts of the County Court of Essex, holden at Rochford, Brentwood, and Romford; of the County Court of Kent, holden at Dartford, Gravesend, Greenwich, and Woolwich; of the Southwark County Court of Surrey, and of the Bow and Whitechapel County Courts of Middlesex; and that the City of London Court, appointed by such Order to have Admiralty jurisdiction, shall cease to have such jurisdiction.

And Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice aforesaid, to order that the said Order of the fourteenth day of January, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-nine, shall be varied or rescinded, so far as it varies from this Order.

Edmund Harrison.

At the Court at Windsor, the 16th day of May, 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Order in Council dated the first day of November, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four, Her Majesty did, by virtue of the power vested in Her by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," approve of certain Consolidated Tables therein referred to of Light Duties (Oversea section and Coast section) levied by the General Lighthouse Authorities, that is to say, the Corporation of the Trinity House of Deptford Strond, the Commissioners of Northern Lighthouses, and the Commissioners of Irish Lights:

And whereas by various subsequent Orders in Council Her Majesty has approved of certain revisions and amendments thereof, and of certain variations and abatements therefrom, and also of certain duties for new Lights:

And whereas by an Order in Council dated the twenty-fourth October, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, Her Majesty has approved of certain revised and amended new Consolidated Tables of Light Duties (Oversea section) levied by the said General Lighthouse Authorities respectively in the form thereto annexed, together with the several reductions, variations, abatements, regulations, and exemptions therein contained:

And whereas it has been made to appear to Her Majesty that it is expedient to revise, alter, and amend the remaining or Coast section of the aforesaid Consolidated Tables of Light Duties:

And whereas new Consolidated Tables of Light Duties (Coast Section) levied by the said General Lighthouse Authorities respectively, in the form hereunto annexed, together with the several reductions, variations, abatements, regulations, and exemptions contained therein, have been submitted for Her Majesty's approval:

And whereas such last-mentioned Tables appear to be proper and reasonable:

Now, therefore, Her Majesty, by virtue of the power vested in Her by "The Merchant Shipping Act, 1854," by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to approve, and doth hereby approve, the said new Tables of Light Duties (Coast Section) and the said reductions, variations, abatements, regulations, and exemptions submitted as aforesaid.

Edmund Harrison.
