HOLBIEN EXHIBITION AT DRESDEN IN 1871.

THE Lords of the Committee of Council for Education have received from Her Majesty's Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs a communication, stating that it is proposed to hold at Dresden, from the 15th August to the 15th October next, the Exhibition of Works by Holbein which was announced last year, but postponed in consequence of the war on the continent.

The following Programme has been issued for the guidance of intending contributors:—

1. The object of the Holbein Exhibition is to bring before the public a collection of the original works of

Hans Holbien the Younger, and to make it as complete as possible. Works of other artists of the Holbein family, or copies of such works, will be admitted in addition. The Committee charged with the organization of the Exhibition reserves the right to reject works not qualified for the Exhibition.

2. The Exhibition is to continue open from August 15th to October 15th of this year, in the North-Western "Zwinger-Pavillon," belonging to the Royal Picture Gallery at Dresden.

3. It is requested that the announcements of Art works intended for transmission may be made not later than July 15th; and printed forms for this purpose may be obtained from all members of the Committee, or from the Secretary, at the following address:—

Hofrath Dr. Von Zahn,
Dresden, Ammon-Strasse, 83.

It is further requested that the Art works them-
