"THE FAIRS ACT, 1871."

BUNGAY FAIRS, SUFFOLK.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, a representation has been duly made to me by the Magistrates of the Petty Sessional District of Bungay, in the county of Suffolk, that Fairs have been annually held in the town of Bungay, in the same district and county, on the 14th and 15th days of May, and on the 25th and 26th days of September, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such fairs should be abolished.

2. On the 15th day of August, 1871, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fairs.

(Signed)

H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, July 17, 1871.

"THE FAIRS ACT, 1871."

HADLEIGH FAIRS, SUFFOLK.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 6th day of July, 1871, a representation has been duly made to me by the Magistrates of the Petty Sessional Division of the hundred of Cosford, in the county of Suffolk, that certain Fairs have been hitherto held in the Market-place of the town of Hadleigh, in the same division and county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such fairs should be abolished.

2. On the 18th day of August, 1871, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fairs.

(Signed)

H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, July 19, 1871.
