TUESDAY, AUGUST 1, 1871.

AT the Court at Osborne House, Isle of Wight, the 28th day of July, 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS, by an Act passed in the fifteenth and sixteenth years of Our reign, intituled "An Act to consolidate and amend the Laws relating to the Militia in England," it is, amongst other things, enacted, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, from time to time, whenever, with the advice of Her Privy Council, she may see fit, to extend or reduce the period of training and exercise of all or any part of the Militia, so as the whole period of training and exercise in any year shall not exceed fifty-six days nor be less than three days; and whereas by an Order in Council made and bearing date the twenty-ninth day of June, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, Her Majesty was pleased to order and direct that the period of training of all the Militia of England should be extended to twenty-seven or twenty-eight days, as therein mentioned; and whereas it is expedient that the training of certain regiments mentioned in the schedule hereto should be extended beyond the period of twenty-eight days, for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one: Now, therefore, Her Majesty, with the advice of Her Privy Council, is pleased to order and direct that the period of training and exercise of the several regiments of Militia mentioned in the schedule to this Order appended shall be extended from twenty-eight days to thirty-four days, for the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, under the provisions of the said recited Act.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament passed in the seventh and eighth years of Her Majesty's reign, intituled "An Act to amend the law respecting the office of County Coroner," it is (amongst other things) enacted, that when, and as often as, it shall seem expedient to the Justices of any county that such county should be divided into two or more districts for the purposes of that Act, it shall be lawful for the said Justices, in General or Quarter Sessions assembled, to resolve that a petition shall be presented to Her Majesty, praying that such division be made, and thereupon to adjourn the further consideration of such petition until notice thereof shall be given to the Coroner or Coroners of such county as therein-after provided; and further, that the Clerk of the Peace shall give notice of any such resolution to every Coroner for such county, and of the time when the petition will be taken by the said Justices into consideration, and the Justices shall confer with every such Coroner who shall attend the meeting of the Justices for that purpose touching such petition, having due regard to the size and nature of each proposed district, the number of the inhabitants, the nature of their employments, and such other circumstances as shall appear to the Justices fit to be considered in carrying into execution the provisions of the said Act; and that such petition, with a description of the several proposed districts, and of the boundaries thereof, with the reasons upon which the petition is founded, shall be certified to Her Majesty under the hands and seals of two or more of the Justices present when such petition shall be agreed to, and that the Clerk of the Peace for such county shall forthwith give or send a true copy of such petition, certified under his hand, to every Coroner of such county; and further, that it shall be lawful for Her Majesty, if she shall think fit, with the advice of Her Privy Council, after taking into consideration any such petition, and also any petition which may be presented to Her Majesty by any Coroner of the same county concerning such proposed division, or whenever it shall seem fit to Her Majesty to direct the issue of a writ de Coronatore eligendo, for the purpose of authorising the election of an additional Coroner above the number of
