

or causing it to be treated, with some dressing; or dipping or other remedy for sheep-scab;

For prohibiting or regulating the movement out of any field, stable, cowshed, or other premises in which sheep-scab has been found to exist, of any sheep that has been in contact with, or in the same field, stable, cowshed, or other premises with any sheep affected with sheep-scab;

For cleansing or disinfecting sheds and places used by sheep affected with sheep-scab;

and may, from time to time, revoke any such regulation.

3. Provided that the Privy Council, if satisfied on inquiry, with respect to any regulation made under this Order, that the same is of too restrictive a character, or otherwise objectionable, may direct the revocation thereof, and thereupon, as from the time specified in that behalf by the Privy Council, the same shall cease to operate.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 5th day of August, 1871.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby revoke their Order, bearing date the twelfth day of February, one thousand eight hundred and seventy, defining the part of the Port of Hull, in the East Riding of the county of York, within which foreign cattle might be landed for slaughter: Provided that nothing herein shall be deemed to invalidate or make unlawful anything done under the said Order before the date of this revocation, or interfere with the institution or prosecution of any proceeding in respect of any offence committed against, or any penalty incurred under, the said Order.

Edmund Harrison.

AT the Council Chamber, Whitehall, the 5th day of August, 1871.

By the Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council.

THE Lords of Her Majesty's Most Honourable Privy Council, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in them vested under The Contagious Diseases (Animals) Act, 1869, and of every other power enabling them in this behalf, do hereby define the part of the Port of Hull, in the East Riding of the county of York, within which foreign cattle may be landed for slaughter, as follows:—

All that space forming part of the town of Kingston-upon-Hull, lying within a line commencing at the south-western end of the street called Bath-place, and running northward to and along the east side of Cogan-street to Kingston-street, thence in an easterly direction along the south side of Kingston-street to the north-east corner of Manor House-street, thence in a northerly direction to and along the east side of Commercial-road and Myton-place to Castle-street, thence in an easterly direction along the south side of Castle-street, Myton Gate Bridge, and Myton Gate to a point two hundred and forty feet west from the north-west corner of Queen-street, thence in a southerly direction to the north side of Humber-street at a point two hundred and forty feet distant from Queen-street, thence in a westerly direction along the north side of Humber-street to Humber Dock-street, thence in a southerly direction along Humber Dock-street, Humber-place, and Minerva-place to and along the east side of the East Pier to the south face of such Pier, thence along the south face of such Pier to the western end thereof, thence straight in a north-westerly direction to a point on the southern side of Wellington-street two hundred and sixty-one feet to the west of the centre of the entrance Lock of the Humber Dock, thence westward along the south side of Wellington-street for a distance of nine hundred and fifteen feet, and further westward in a straight line to the south-western end of the street called Bath-place aforesaid, which space is coloured green on the plan of Kingston-upon-Hull, deposited at the Privy Council Office, a copy of which is deposited at the office of the Town Clerk of the borough of Kingston-upon-Hull:

And do hereby prescribe as follows:—

1. Foreign cattle landed within the said landing-place may, under such regulations as the Commissioners of Her Majesty's Customs from time to time prescribe, be re-shipped therefrom and conveyed by vessel direct to the Port of Goole.

2. Provided that all cattle so re-shipped shall continue to be deemed foreign cattle.
