"THE FAIRS ACT, 1871."

FAREHAM FAIR, HANTS.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows:

1. By Memorial, dated the 25th day of July, 1871, a representation has been duly made to me by the Magistrates of the Petty Sessional District of Fareham, in the county of Southampton, that a Fair has been annually held on the 29th and 30th days of June, in the town of Fareham, within the said district and county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 31st day of August, 1871, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, August 7, 1871.

"THE FAIRS ACT, 1871."

FINNINGHAM FAIR, SUFFOLK.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices of the Petty Sessional District of Hartismere, in the county of Suffolk, that a Fair has been annually held in the parish of Finningham, in the said district and county, on the 4th and 5th days of September, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when I should take the same into consideration has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished:

And whereas the Council of the borough of Eye, as lords or owners of the said Fair, and the tolls thereof, have consented in writing that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now therefore I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held in the parish of Finningham, in the Petty Sessional District of Hartismere, in the county of Suffolk, shall be abolished, as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 8th day of August, 1871.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

CUCKFIELD FAIR, SUSSEX.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by the Justices of the Petty Sessional District of Cuckfield, in the county of Sussex, that a Fair has been annually held in the parish of Cuckfield, in the said district and county, on the 16th and 17th days of September; and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fair should be abolished:

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such fair should be abolished:

And whereas Warden Serghison, Esquire, as Lord or owner of the said Fair and the tolls thereof, has consented in writing that the said Fair should be abolished:

Now therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fair which has been annually held in the parish and Petty Sessional District of Cuckfield, in the county of Sussex, shall be abolished, as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 8th day of August, 1871.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

LOCAL GOVERNMENT ACT, 1858:

NOTICE OF ADOPTION OF ACT BY THE PARISH OF THAME, IN THE COUNTY OF OXFORD.

WHEREAS the Local Government Act, 1858, was duly adopted on the 29th day of June, 1871, by the parish of Thame, in the county of Oxford; and notice of such adoption has been duly given, as required by such Act; and it has now been certified to me that a copy of such notice has been duly advertised, and that copies have also been affixed to the principal doors of each church and chapel in such parish to which notices are usually affixed: and the period fixed by the said Act for appeal has now expired, and no such appeal has been made:

Now, therefore, I, as one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, do hereby give notice that the Local Government Act, 1858, has been adopted within the said parish of Thame, and that, in accordance with the provisions thereof, the said Act will, at the expiration of two months from the date of the passing of the aforesaid resolution of adoption, have the force of law within such parish.

Given under my hand this 10th day of August, 1871.
