Wisbeach District.

To the Wisbeach Local Board of Health, in the county of Cambridge;
 And to all others whom it may concern.

WHEREAS by the 30th section of "The Sanitary Act, 1866," it is enacted that, for the purposes of that Act, any ship, vessel, or boat that is in a place not within the district of a Nuisance Authority, shall be deemed to be within the district of such Nuisance Authority, as may be prescribed by the Privy Council;

And whereas by the 52nd section of the same Act, it is enacted that the Lords of Her Majesty's Council should have power to declare by what Nuisance Authority or Authorities any Orders, Rules, and Regulations made under that section should be enforced and executed;

And whereas by "The Local Government Board Act, 1871," all the powers vested in the Privy Council by (among other enactments) "The Sanitary Act, 1866," are transferred to and are to be exercised by the Local Government Board:

Now therefore, we, the Local Government Board, in exercise of the powers conferred on us by the above-named Acts, do hereby order and prescribe that, for the purposes of "The Sanitary Act, 1866," the roadstead called "Wisbeach Eye," and any other place within the port of Wisbeach below or seaward of the district of the Sutton Bridge Local Board of Health, shall be deemed to be within the district of the Local Board of Wisbeach, and that the said Local Board of Wisbeach shall be the authority by which the Order of Council dated July 29th, 1871, shall be enforced and executed with regard to ships coming into the said roadstead or other place, or lying in the same.

Given under our seal of office, this nineteenth day of September, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

James Stansfeld, President.

In Chancery.

In the Matter of certain Closes of Land, with the Messuages and Buildings erected thereon, containing in the whole 539 acres 3 roods and 35 perches, or thereabouts, situated in the several parishes of Llandyrnog, Llangwysfaen, and Bodfary, in the county of Denbigh, and known as Plas Ashpool, and devised by the Will of James Henry Clough, Esquire, deceased; and in the Matter of the Act 19 and 20 Victoria, chapter 120, intituled "An Act to facilitate Leases and Sales of Settled Estates."

PURSUANT to the above-mentioned Act of Parliament and the Consolidated General Order of this Court in that behalf, notice is hereby given, that on the 12th day of July, 1871, the Reverend Thomas Roberts Ellis, of Gyffin, in the county of Carnarvon, Clerk in Holy Orders, and Harriet Ellen Ellis, the Wife of the Reverend John Williams Ellis, of Glasfryn, in the same county, Clerk in Holy Orders, by Sidney Ellis, of Tanrallt, in Bangor, in the same county, Spinster, her next friend, presented their Petition to the Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain (to be heard before his Honour the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Wickens), praying that the hereditaments above mentioned might be sold by this Court under the provisions of the above-mentioned Act, and that all proper inquiries might be made and directions given for effecting such purpose; that the monies to arise from such sale might be applied first in the payment of the cost, charges, and expences of such sale, and the costs of all parties of and incident to the said Petition and consequent thereon, and in payment of the several mortgage debts and charges affecting the said hereditaments; and that the residue of such monies might be laid out in the purchase of £3 per Cent. Consolidated Bank Annuities, as is therein mentioned. And notice is also hereby given, that the petitioners may be served with any Order of the Court, or of the Judge in Chambers, or notice relating to the subject of the said Petition, at the offices of Messrs. Gold, Edwards, and Weston, situate at Denbigh, in the county of Denbigh, or at the offices of Messrs. Frankish and Buchanan, situate at No. 23, Parliament-street, in the city of Westminster.—Dated this 20th day of September, 1871.

FRANKISH and BUCHANAN, No. 23, Parliament-street, Westminster; Agents for GOLD, EDWARDS, and WESTON, Denbigh, Solicitors for the said Petitioners.]

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery in England, made in the cause of Robert Lyle and Francesca Orr Lyle, his wife, plaintiffs, against John Ellwood and James Ellwood, defendants (1871, L., No. 82), the persons claiming to be next of kin, according to the statutes for the distribution of intestates' estates, to, and living at the death of, Mary Prosser, Widow, late of Brynmawr, in the county of Brecon, in Wales, and who died on the 15th day of February, 1870, and the persons claiming to be the legal personal representatives of such of the said next of kin as have since died, are, by their Solicitors, on or before the 7th day of January, 1872, to come in and prove their claims at the chambers of the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Wickens, situate at No. 13, Old-square, Lincoln's-inn, in the county of Middlesex, in England, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Decree. Thursday, the 11th day of January, 1872, at twelve o'clock at noon, at the said chambers, is appointed for hearing and adjudicating upon the claims. The said Mary Prosser, it is believed, died without having had any children. She was the only daughter of Thomas Ellwood and Elizabeth, his wife (formerly Elizabeth Teasdale), both long since deceased, and who for many years previously to, and at the time of their deaths, resided at Llanelly, in North Wales.—Dated this 22nd day of August, 1871.

PURSUANT to a Decree of the High Court of Chancery, made in the cause of Lyle against Ellwood, the creditors of Mary Prosser, late of Brynmawr, in the county of Brecon, Widow, who died in or about the month of February, 1870, are, on or before the 10th day of October, 1871, to send by post, prepaid, to Messrs. G. A. Crawley, Arnold, and Green, of No. 20, Whitehall-place, in the city of Westminster, the Solicitors of the plaintiffs, Robert Lyle and Francesca Orr, his wife, the administratrix of the estate and effects of the said Mary Prosser, their Christian and surnames, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars of their claims, a statement of their accounts, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily excluded from the benefit of the said Decree. Every creditor holding any security is to produce the same before the Vice-Chancellor Sir John Wickens, at his chambers, situate No. 13, Old-square, Lincoln's-inn, Middlesex, on Friday, the 3rd day of November, 1871, at twelve o'clock at noon, being the time appointed for adjudicating on the claims.—Dated this 22nd day of August, 1871.

In Lunacy.

In the Matter of Caroline Ross, a person of unsound mind, so found by Inquisition.

UNDER the provisions of the Lunacy Regulation Act, 1858, any person or persons claiming to be the heir or heirs-at-law of the said Caroline Ross, now residing at Surrey County Lunatic Asylum, situate at Wandsworth, in the county of Surrey, or claiming to be entitled under the statutes for the distribution of intestates' estates (in case she were now dead intestate) to her personal estate, are, on or before the 2nd day of November, 1871, by their Solicitors, to come in and prove their heirship or kindred before the Masters in Lunacy, at their office, No. 45, Lincoln's-inn-fields, in the county of Middlesex, or in default thereof they will be peremptorily precluded from the benefit of all proceedings in the above matter. The said Caroline Ross is believed to have been a daughter of Richard Briggs, Licensed Victualler, formerly of the Running Horse, near Grosvenor-square, in the said county of Middlesex, and has been also called and known by the name of Caroline Briggs and Carlotta Rosolini.—Dated this 9th day of September, 1871.

COUNTY COURTS' EQUITABLE JURISDICTION.

PURSUANT to an Order of the County Court of Cornwall, holden at Helston, made in a suit Sleeman against Symons and others, the creditors of, or claimants against, the estate of Alice Symons, late of Helston, in the county of Cornwall, deceased, are, on or before the 7th day of October, 1871, to send by post, prepaid, to the Registrar of the County Court of Cornwall, holden at Helston, their Christian and surnames, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars of their claims, a statement of their accounts, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them; in default thereof they may be excluded from any benefit in the estate. Every creditor holding any security is to produce or transmit the same to the Registrar aforesaid, on or before the 11th day of October, 1871, at twelve o'clock at noon, being the time appointed for adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 7th day of July, 1871.

FREDERICK HILL, Registrar.

PURSUANT to an Order of the County Court of Cornwall, holden at Helston, made in a suit Sleeman against Symons and others, the claimants, as next of kin, against the estate of Alice Symons, late of Helston aforesaid, Widow, deceased, are, on or before the 11th day of October, 1871, to come in and prove their claims before the Registrar of the County of Cornwall, holden at Helston; in default thereof they may be excluded from any benefit in the estate. The 11th day of October, 1871, at twelve o'clock at noon, is the time appointed for adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 7th day of July, 1871.

FREDERICK HILL, Registrar.

PURSUANT to an Order of the County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Knaresborough, made in a suit of Hiram Compton Booth against Hanley Hutchinson and Thomas Grange, the creditors of William Greetham, of Harrogate, in the county of York, Plumber, Glazier, and Painter, who are entitled to come in and participate in the benefit of the trusts created by a certain indenture dated the 11th day of June, 1870, and made between the said William Greetham, of the first part, the said Hanley Hutchinson and Thomas Grange, trustees for themselves and the rest of the creditors of the said William Greetham, parties thereto, of the second part, and the several other persons whose names and seals are thereunto subscribed and set, being respectively creditors of the said William Greetham, of the third part, are, on or before the 2nd day of October, 1871, to send by post, prepaid, to the Registrar of the County Court of Yorkshire, holden at Knaresborough, their Christian and surnames, addresses and descriptions, the full particulars of their claims, a statement of their accounts, and the nature of the securities (if any) held by them; in default thereof they may be excluded from any benefit in the estate. Every creditor holding any security is to produce or transmit the same to the Registrar aforesaid, on or before the 11th day of October, 1871, at eleven o'clock in the forenoon, being the time appointed for adjudicating upon the claims.—Dated this 18th day of September, 1871.
