September 25, 1871.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Copenhagen, reporting that an Industrial and Fine

Arts Exhibition is to be held in that city in 1872. This Exhibition is to be confined almost exclusively to exhibitors who are natives of Sweden, Norway, and Denmark. Foreigners are permitted, however, to exhibit the following industrial products:—

- (1.) Machinery and implements of recent invention, more especially such as may be considered to have some important bearing on the industry of the three Northern Kingdoms.
- (2.) Manufactured articles and products of new descriptions, or produced by a new method.
- (3.) Manufactured articles and products which have not been hitherto produced in the three Northern Kingdoms.

Foreign exhibitors taking advantage of the above permission will have to conform to the rules and regulations issued by the Committee, who shall have the right of deciding whether such foreign articles can be exhibited in the Exhibition building itself, or whether the exhibitors themselves shall be called upon at their own expense to provide the necessary show-rooms.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 25, 1871.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Malaga, reporting that that port is not qualified for the performance of quarantine of any kind; that vessels arriving there from ports reputed as foul are immediately sent away to a foul lazaret at Vigo, Tambo, or Port Mahon, and that vessels coming from suspected ports are dismissed to one of the neighbouring observation lazarets of Almeria or Cadiz.

Her Majesty's Consul at Malaga recommends that masters of vessels coming to that port from Great Britain, Northern Europe, or America, should touch at Vigo or Tambo, and those from the Upper Mediterranean and Levant, should call at Port Mahon, at which lazarets they can either obtain free pratique, if entitled thereto, or perform the necessary quarantine, and thus avoid the delay and other inconveniences which would arise from their almost certain dismissal from the port of Malaga, in case they made their voyage to that place direct.
