*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 28, 1871.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Patras, reporting that all vessels arriving in Greek ports will be required to furnish themselves with bills of health from the Greek Consul at the port from which they departed; and if there be no Greek Consul at that port, then from a Consul of some other nation. If the vessel be furnished with a foul bill of health, she must proceed to one of the under-mentioned ports to perform quarantine; viz.:

Corfu,
Delos,
Sciathos,

Agio Yorghli, in the Bay of Salamis;

if she have no bill of health from the Greek Consul, nor from any other Consul, she will be subjected to a quarantine of observation of from five to eleven days, according to the dispositions of the crew and passengers.

(C. 888.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 28, 1871.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a telegram from Her Majesty's Chargé d'Affaires at Madrid, to the effect that, in the case of vessels proceeding to Spanish ports, quarantine performed at Gibraltar is equivalent to that performed at Vigo or Port Mahon.

(C. 889.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 25, 1871.*

The Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Havre, reporting that vessels arriving at that port from the United Kingdom, do not require bills of health.

(C. 892.)

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
September 28, 1871.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a Despatch from Her Majesty's Consul at Carthagena, reporting that vessels arriving at that port with clean bills of health from Ireland, Scotland, and Gibraltar, are admitted to free pratique, and that vessels from England are also admitted to pratique after three days' observation.
