THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

NEEDHAM MARKET FAIR, SUFFOLK.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows :

1. By Memorial, dated the 27th day of September, 1871, a representation has been duly made to me by the Magistrates of the Petty Sessional District of Bosmere and Claydon, in the county of Suffolk, that a Fair has been annually held on the 28th and 29th days of October, at Needham Market, within the said district and county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fair should be abolished.

2. On the 31st day of October, 1871, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fair.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, October 9, 1871.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

WATTON FAIRS, NORFOLK.

IN pursuance of the above-mentioned Act, I, the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, hereby notify as follows :

1. By Memorial, a representation has been duly made to me by the Justices acting in and for the Petty Sessional District of Wayland, in the county of Norfolk, that certain Fairs have been annually held on the 10th day of July and the 11th day of October, in the parish of Watton, within the said district and county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that such Fairs should be abolished.

2. On the 2nd day of November, 1871, I shall take the aforesaid representation into consideration, and all persons are to intimate, before that day, any objection they may desire to offer to the abolition of the said Fairs.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.

Whitehall, October 9, 1871.

THE FAIRS ACT, 1871.

GAYWOOD FAIRS, NORFOLK.

WHEREAS a representation has been duly made to me, as Secretary of State for the Home Department, by Richard Bagge, of Gaywood Hall, in the county of Norfolk, Esquire, Lord of the Manor of Gaywood, in the said county, that certain Fairs have been annually held in the months of June and October in the parish of Gaywood, in the said county, and that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished :

And whereas notice of the said representation and of the time when I should take the same into consideration, has been duly published in pursuance of "The Fairs Act, 1871.:"

And whereas on such representation and consideration it appears to me that it would be for the convenience and advantage of the public that the said Fairs should be abolished :

And whereas the said Richard Bagge, as lord or owner of the said Fairs and the tolls thereof, has consented in writing that the said Fairs should be abolished :

Now therefore, I, as the Secretary of State for the Home Department, in exercise of the powers vested in me by "The Fairs Act, 1871," do hereby order that the Fairs which have been annually held in the months of June and October, in the parish of Gaywood, in the county of Norfolk, shall be abolished as from the date of this order.

Given under my hand at Whitehall, this 12th day of October, 1871.

(Signed) H. A. Bruce.
