be filled by a qualified Officer to be selected by Our Commander-in-Chief with the approval of Our Secretary of State ;

Each Officer shall also declare that it is his bonâ fide intention to join immediately and do duty in the Corps, Brigade, Battalion, or Company to which he proposes to exchange; and no Officer shall be permitted to retire within six months of the date of his exchange, excepting in the case of ill-health or other emergency, which shall be specially considered.

19. An Officer so exchanging shall be permitted to defray all fair and reasonable expenses incurred through such exchange by the Officer with whom he exchanges, provided that the sum to be paid be approved by Our Commander-in-Chief before payment is made.

25. A Supernumerary Officer who resigns his appointment on unsatisfactory grounds, or is displaced therefrom for misconduct or incapacity, unless he be removed from Our Army, shall receive a reduced rate of half-pay of such amount and for such period as Our Secretary of State may decide, taking into consideration the length and character of the services rendered by the Officer.

26. If a Supernumerary Officer shall die, be promoted, or retire, or if an Officer of the rank in which there is a Supernumerary Officer waiting absorption under Article 24 shall die, be promoted, or retire, no promotion shall take place in succession to such vacancy.

THE Civil Service Commissioners hereby give notice, that the following Regulations for Examinations, to be held in pursuance of Her Majesty's Order in Council of June 4th, 1870, have been approved by the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury :—

REGULATIONS (framed in pursuance of Her Majesty's Order in Council of 4th June, 1870) for an Open Competitive Examination for Clerkships, &c., in various Departments, as stated in the Schedule hereto annexed.

N.B.—These Regulations apply only to the Competitive Examination to be held on the 2nd January, 1872. For any subsequent Examination fresh Regulations will be issued, which may be different from these.

1. On Tuesday, the 2nd day of January, 1872, and following days, a competitive examination will be held, in London, Edinburgh, and Dublin, of candidates for employment as Clerks and Supplementary Clerks, and in other similar capacities in various Departments as stated in the schedule hereto annexed. Twenty such situations will be filled up by means of this competition, if so many candidates shall be found qualified according to the rules hereinafter prescribed.

2. This examination will, subject to the payment of the fees hereinafter mentioned, be open to all persons, being natural born subjects of Her Majesty, provided—

- (a.) That their age, on the first day of the said examination, be not less than 16 nor more than 20. Members of the Military and Naval Services (whether commissioned or non-commissioned) will, for the purpose of competition for appointments in the Civil Service, be considered to have on leaving their former service the same age as when they entered it ;
- (b.) That their health and character are such as to qualify them in these respects for the employment which they seek ;
- (c.) That they have already passed a preliminary examination under previous Regulations (Scheme II), or shall have passed the preliminary examination prescribed in Regulation 3.
- (d.) That they have not, after becoming selected candidates at any examination under previous Regulations (II), declined to accept the situation offered to them in accordance with those Regulations, or accepted such a situation and passed into actual employment in the Civil Service.

* * Candidates who have served as pupil teachers, or schoolmasters in schools under inspection by the Committee of Council on Education, England, or by the Commissioners of National Education, Ireland, will be reported specially to those departments; and such of them as have been trained in normal schools at the public expense, will not be qualified to receive appointments in the Civil Service until the consent of those departments, and the concurrence of the Treasury therein, has been notified to the Civil Service Commissioners.

3. Preliminary examinations will be held by the Civil Service Commissioners in London,

Edinburgh, and Dublin, on the 17th November and 1st and 15th December in the following subjects :—

1. Handwriting ;
2. Orthography ;
3. Arithmetic (to Vulgar and Decimal Fractions) ;

and no candidate who fails to satisfy the Civil Service Commissioners of his competence in each of these subjects will be admitted to the competitive examination above mentioned.

Application for permission to attend one of these preliminary examinations must be made in the writing of the candidate, so as to be received ten days at least before the day on which he wishes to attend.

A fee of 10s. will be required from each candidate attending the preliminary examination.

4. At the competitive examination exercises will be set in the following subjects, and the candidates' performances will be valued in marks according to their relative merit ; the maximum of marks for each subject being fixed as follows, viz. :—

Arithmetic	400

Candidates will be at liberty to offer themselves for examination in any or all of these subjects. No subjects are obligatory.

A fee of one pound will be required from each candidate attending this examination.

5. The marks obtained by each candidate will be added up, and the twenty candidates who shall have obtained a greater aggregate number of such marks than any of the remaining candidates will be deemed to be selected candidates, and will be entitled to be employed on probation, each in one of the twenty situations, specified or referred to in the annexed schedule, which are now vacant or which may next become vacant ; provided that he be duly qualified according to the special rules prescribed, under clause IV of Her Majesty's Order in Council of 4th June, 1870, for the particular situation to which he may be appropriated as arranged in the following Regulation (6).

6. Subject to the last-mentioned condition, the particular departments and situations to which the selected candidates may be respectively appointed will be determined by their own choice, exercised, while an alternative remains, by each in the order of his position on the list. Vacancies, as they occur, will be announced by the chiefs of the various Departments to the Civil Service Commissioners, who will communicate with the qualified candidates next in order of choice, and report the result to the Departments concerned. In case of a vacancy occurring in a Department for which no one on the list of selected candidates is in all respects qualified, the Civil Service Commissioners may offer it to the candidate highest at the time on the list of selected candidates, subject to his passing a qualifying examination within such period as they may determine ; or may reserve it to be filled by means of a subsequent open competition, or otherwise, as they may see fit, in accordance with the Order in Council of 4th June, 1870.

7. Every selected candidate, after being assigned to a Department, will enter on a six months' period of probation, during which his conduct and capacity in the transaction of business shall be subjected to such tests as may be determined by the Chief of the Department for which he is intended; and he will not be finally appointed to the public service, unless his six months' probation shall furnish to the Head of his Department satisfactory proof of his fitness to be permanently employed in that Department.
