

- (3.) If the cattle are moved out of the Metropolis by railway, they shall be conveyed in properly constructed cattle-vans, without stopping, to the railway-station, and there be transferred from the vans directly to the railway-truck :
 - (4.) If the cattle are moved out of the Metropolis otherwise than by railway, they shall be conveyed, without stopping, from the Show out of the Metropolis in properly constructed cattle-vans :
 - (5.) Provided that if any cattle being so moved, while in the Metropolis, come accidentally or otherwise in contact with any cattle not having been exhibited at the Show, they shall not be moved out of the Metropolis, but shall be slaughtered in the Metropolis.
12. If no case of contagious or infectious disease occurs in the Show, animals (other than cattle) exhibited in the Show, may be moved out of the Show and out of the Metropolis as if this Order had not been made.
13. Any dung of animals, and any hay, straw, litter, or other thing commonly used for food of animals, or otherwise for or about animals, shall not be moved out of the Show without a certificate of one of the Veterinary Surgeons for the Show, certifying that the thing moved has not been in contact with, or been used for or about any animal affected with a contagious or infectious disease, or that it has been properly disinfected.

14. Where the Licence of a Commissioner of Police is required under this Order, the Commissioner is hereby empowered to grant the same, and the Commissioner may at any time, if he thinks fit, revoke any licence granted by him.

15. Licences, certificates, and passes required under this Order shall be in the respective forms given in the Schedule to this Order, or to the like effect.

16. This Order shall have full effect notwithstanding anything in The Metropolitan Contagious Diseases (Animals) Order of August, 1869, or in any other Order of the Privy Council.

17. If any person or body does anything in contravention of, or fails to comply with any of the provisions of, this Order, such person or body shall be deemed guilty of an offence against this Order.
