

" adjoining the-room now used for the vestry meetings of the said parish, and being the same premises as are comprised in, and conveyed by, the indenture of conveyance, dated the 14th day of June last, made by the Guardians of the Poor of the Medway Union, in the county of Kent, with the consent of the Poor Law Board, to the Vicar and Churchwardens of this parish, would form and be a fit and convenient place to be provided or allotted for the holding of such meetings.

" That the said Vicar and Churchwardens being willing to sell the same premises for the sum of eighty pounds, this vestry consent to purchase the same for such sum, and direct that the necessary application be made to the Poor Law Board (now the Local Government Board) for their consent to such purchase, and for the conveyance thereof to the Churchwardens and Overseers of this parish, and for charging the poor rates of the said parish with the amount of such purchase money, together with the incidental expenses."

And whereas the Churchwardens of the said parish have made their application in writing to the Local Government Board, pursuant to the above resolution.

Now, therefore, we, the Local Government Board, under the authority of the several statutes in that behalf made and provided, hereby order and direct as follows:—

ARTICLE I.—That so much of the said Act, passed in the fourteenth year of the reign of Her present Majesty, as relates to the providing of a room for the purpose of holding vestry meetings for the transaction of any business of, or relating to, the said parish of Gillingham, shall forthwith be applied to and be put in force within the said parish.

ARTICLE II.—That the said Churchwardens and Overseers shall purchase the premises referred to in the before-mentioned resolution for the sum of eighty pounds, to be used for the above purpose.

ARTICLE III.—That a copy of this Order shall be published in the London Gazette.

Given under our seal of office, this fourteenth day of November, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one.

APPPLICATION is intended to be made to be made to Parliament in the next session for an Act to effect the following objects, or some of them, namely:—

1. To alter, amend, extend, or repeal all or some of the powers and provisions of the Act 15 Geo.

II., intituled "An Act to enable the parishioners of the parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, in the city of London, and county of Middlesex, to purchase a convenient piece of ground for an additional burial-ground for the use of the said parish, and to enable the said parishioners to raise such sum and sums of money as shall be necessary, for that purpose," and all or any other Acts or provisions relating to the said burial-ground, and to repeal, annul, make void, alter, or vary, not only the provisions of the said Act, but also all or any conveyances, trusts, deeds, instruments, and documents relating thereto, and providing that the ground acquired thereunder, situate in the parish of St. Pancras, in the county of Middlesex, or the said parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, abutting upon the Gray's-inn-road, and known as St. Andrew's Burial-ground, Gray's-inn-road, should for ever be appropriated and used as a burial-ground or burying place, and for no other purpose whatever.

2. To enable the rector and churchwardens and vestry of the said parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, and all other corporations or persons in whom the said burial-ground may now be vested, to grant and convey the whole or any part of the said burial-ground to the rector and churchwardens of the district parish of Holy Trinity, Gray's-inn-road, in the county of Middlesex, and their successors, or such persons, bodies, and corporations as may be specified in the Bill, for the purpose of erecting thereon a school-house, or building masters' and mistresses' houses, and all suitable erections, buildings, playgrounds, and conveniences; and also to make and convert any portion of the said burial-ground not required for those purposes into a public recreation ground.

3. To empower the rector and churchwardens or vestry of the said parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, or such other persons and corporations as may be specified in the Bill, to convert and appropriate the said burial-ground, or any part thereof, to the purposes of a public recreation-ground, and to sell, dispose of, demise, and let any part or parts of such burial-ground, either under the provisions of the Metropolis Burials Act, 1852, or otherwise.

4. To enable the said rector and churchwardens or the vestry of the said parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, to defray the cost and expense of and incidental to the making and converting of the said burial-ground into a public recreation-ground out of any funds in their hands or under their control, and to levy rates on the property and inhabitants of the said parish of St. Andrew, Holborn, and to raise, by borrowing or otherwise, and apply funds for such and any other purposes to be specified in the Bill, in the manner and under the restrictions to be specified in the Bill, and to provide for the application of any surplus income and funds received by them or by any other persons and corporations to be named in the Bill, under the powers of the intended Act, and not required for the purposes thereof, for the benefit of the said parish of Saint Andrew, Holborn, and for the benefit and purposes of the said Schools of Holy Trinity Church, or either of them, as shall be specified in the Bill, or as shall be agreed on between the rector and vestry of the said parish, and such other persons and corporations to be specified in the Bill.

5. To alter and, if necessary, add to the present number of trustees of the said burial-ground, and to provide for the future election and appointment of trustees.

6. To extinguish, alter, and vary all existing rights, powers, and privileges which would in any manner interfere with the objects of the Bill,
