PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made and passed in the session of Parliament holden in the third and fourth years of the reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, intituled an Act for the appointment of convenient places for the holding of Assizes in England and Wales, it was declared and enacted that His Majesty by and with the advice of His Most Honourable Privy Council should have power from time to time, to order and direct at what place or places in any county in England or Wales the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business shall be holden, and to order and direct such assizes and sessions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business to be holden at more than one place in the same county on the same circuit, and to order and direct the assizes and sessions under such commissions for the dispatch of criminal business to be holden for the whole county at one place, and for the dispatch of civil business at one or more place or places in such county on the same circuit; and further to order and direct any special commissions of oyer and terminer and gaol delivery, to be holden at any one or more places in any such county.

And whereas the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of criminal and civil business held in and for the county of Merioneth, have heretofore for many years past been holden alternately at Bala and Dolgelly, in the said county, and in the summer of each year at Dolgelly.

And whereas it is desirable and convenient that the holding of the said assizes and sessions in and for the said county at Bala, should be discontinued, and that the said assizes and sessions in and for the said county should be holden in the spring and in the summer of each year at Dolgelly aforesaid.

Now, therefore, Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her Privy Council, in exercise of the powers vested in Her under and by virtue of the said Act, and of every other power in that behalf doth hereby order and direct that from henceforth the assizes and sessions under the commissions of gaol delivery, and other commissions for the dispatch of civil and criminal business which shall be held in and for the said county of Merioneth, shall be held both in the spring and summer of each year at Dolgelly aforesaid, in the said county.

And the Right Honourable the Lord High

Chancellor of Great Britain, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.
