

AT the Court at Windsor, the 21st day of December, 1871.

PRESENT,

The QUEEN'S Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of Her Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a scheme, bearing date the fourteenth day of December, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-one, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the sixth and seventh years of your Majesty, chapter thirty-seven, have prepared and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following scheme for compensating certain, that is to say, two spiritual persons, whose emoluments have been diminished by reason of proceedings under the said Act.

"Whereas it has been made to appear to us that the fees, dues, or other emoluments of the two spiritual persons mentioned in the schedule to this scheme have been diminished by reason of the constitution, under the provisions of the said Act, of certain districts, which districts have since become new parishes under the provisions of the same Act; and that the payment to the said spiritual persons of the annual sums respectively specified in the schedule to this scheme would provide a just and reasonable compensation for such diminution.

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose, that, in respect of the new parishes mentioned in the first column of the said schedule to this scheme, there shall be paid by us to the two spiritual persons, vicars or incumbents, mentioned and described in the second column of the same schedule, so long as they shall respectively continue to be the vicars or incumbents of the cures which they now hold respectively, and no longer, the annual sums mentioned and set opposite to their respective names in the third column of the same schedule, payment of such annual sums being in each case made in equal half-yearly portions upon the first day of May and the first day of November in each year, but with the right also in each case to a proportionate payment in respect of any period being less than half a year which may elapse between the first day of May or the first day of November (as the case may be) and the determination, from whatever cause, of the incumbency during his tenure of which the spiritual person is entitled to an annual sum under the provisions of this scheme.

"And we further recommend and propose that the right of the said spiritual persons as such vicars, or incumbents as aforesaid, to receive the said annual sums respectively shall in each case be held to have accrued, and that payment thereof shall accordingly be made as from the day on which the consecrated church of the new parish in respect of which such compensation is made, was approved by us under the provisions of the said Act; that being the day upon which, in each case, the vicar or incumbent of the new parish became empowered to perform in the church thereof those offices, and became entitled to retain for his own benefit, those fees, in consideration of the loss of which, to the vicar or incumbent of the mother parish or cure, the amount in each case of the compensation grant in this scheme recommended and proposed has been fixed by us.

"And we further recommend and propose, that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Act or of any other Act of Parliament."
