

hamlet of Roehampton, all in the county of Surrey, and within the said metropolitan police district, together with so much of the parish of Streatham, as comprises Upper Tooting and Balham-hill, in the same county and district, should thenceforth be constituted a police court division, and that a police court should be established for such division, to be holden at Wandsworth in the said parish of Wandsworth.

"And Her Majesty was further pleased, with the advice aforesaid, to order, and it was thereby ordered accordingly, that the magistrates who should have been, or should thereafter, be appointed for the said divisions should attend daily at such respective courts, excepting Sundays, Christmas-day, Good Friday, or any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving; and that one of the magistrates appointed, or to be appointed as aforesaid, should attend at the said Wandsworth Police Court, from ten of the clock in the morning until one of the clock in the afternoon; and that one of the said magistrates should attend at the said Kensington Police Court (until the erection of a police court-house as aforesaid, and after the completion thereof at the said Hammersmith Police Court), from two of the clock in the afternoon until five of the clock in the afternoon, and longer, if (in the discretion of the magistrate) it should be deemed to be necessary for the dispatch of business.

"And Her Majesty was further pleased, by and with the advice of Her said Council, to order, and it was thereby ordered, that the said Order should take effect on and from the twenty-eighth day of March, one thousand eight hundred and forty-two.

"And whereas Her Majesty by and with the advice of Her said Council has deemed it expedient to rescind, and vacate so much of the said last-mentioned Order as relates to the times of attendance of the magistrates at such respective courts, Her Majesty is pleased with the advice of Her said Council to order, and it is hereby ordered accordingly, that in lieu of the times, named in the said last-mentioned Order for the attendance of the magistrates at the said courts, the magistrates who shall have been, or shall hereafter be appointed for the said divisions shall attend daily at such respective courts, excepting Sundays, Christmas-day, Good Friday, or any day appointed for a public fast or thanksgiving; and that one of the magistrates appointed, or to be appointed as aforesaid, shall attend at the Hammersmith Police-court, from ten of the clock in the morning until half-past one of the clock in the afternoon, and longer if (in the discretion of the magistrate) it shall be deemed to be necessary for the dispatch of business, and that one of the said magistrates shall attend at the Wandsworth Police Court from half-past two of the clock in the afternoon, until five of the clock in the afternoon, and longer if (in the discretion of the magistrate) it shall be deemed necessary for the dispatch of business."

And Her Majesty is further pleased, by and with the advice of her said Council, to order, and it is hereby ordered, that this Order shall take effect on and from the first day of March, one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

And the Right Honourable Henry Austin Bruce, one of Her Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, is to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

PRESENT.

The QUEEN's Most Excellent Majesty in Council

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of Her Majesty, chapter forty-nine; of the Act of the third and fourth years of Her Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of Her Majesty, chapter fifty-five, duly prepared and laid before Her Majesty in Council a representation, bearing date the twenty-fifth day of January, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, in the words following; that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the fifty-ninth year of His Majesty King George the Third, chapter one hundred and thirty-four; of the Act of the second and third years of your Majesty, chapter forty-nine, of the Act of the third and fourth years of your Majesty, chapter sixty; and of the Act of the nineteenth and twentieth years of your Majesty, chapter fifty-five, have prepared, and now humbly lay before your Majesty in Council the following representation as to the assignment of a district chapelry to the consecrated church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate within the limits of the district chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Kilburn, in the county of Middlesex, and in the diocese of London.

"Whereas it appears to us to be expedient that a district chapelry should be assigned to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate within the limits of the district chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Kilburn, as aforesaid.

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Right Reverend John, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified by his having signed and sealed this representation), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly represent, that it would in our opinion be expedient that all that part of the said district chapelry of the Holy Trinity, Kilburn, which is described in the schedule hereunder written, all which part, together with the boundaries thereof, is delineated and set forth on the map or plan hereunto annexed, should be assigned as a district chapelry to the said church of Saint John the Evangelist, situate as aforesaid, and that the same should be named 'The District Chapelry of Saint John the Evangelist, Kilburn.'

"And with the like consent of the said John, Bishop of the said diocese of London (testified as aforesaid), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, further represent, that it appears to us to be expedient that banns of matrimony should be published, and that marriages, baptisms, churchings, and burials should be solemnized or performed at such church, and that the fees to be received in respect of the publication of such banns and of the solemnization or performance of the said offices should be paid and belong to the minister of the same church for the time being: Provided always, that nothing herein contained shall be construed as expressing any intention on the part of us, the said Commissioners, to concur in or approve the taking of any fee for the performance of the said office of baptism, or for the registration thereof.

"We, therefore, humbly pray, that your Majesty will be graciously pleased to take the premises into your Royal consideration, and to make such
