Published by Authority.

FRIDAY, MARCH 29, 1872.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 26, 1872.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 1st of June, instead of Wednesday, the 15th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold a Drawing Room at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 23rd of April next, at three o'clock.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Drawing Room, it being a Collar-Day.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOM AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Room, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 23, 1872.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that His Royal Highness The Duke of Edinburgh will, by command of The Queen, hold a Levee at St. James's Palace, on behalf of Her Majesty, on Friday, the 12th of April next, at two o'clock.

It is The Queen's pleasure that Presentations to His Royal Highness at this Levee shall be considered as equivalent to Presentations to Her Majesty.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S LEVEE TO BE HELD BY HIS ROYAL HIGHNESS THE DUKE OF EDINBURGH, ON BEHALF OF HER MAJESTY, AT ST. JAMES'S PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Noblemen and Gentlemen, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Levee, at St. James's Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with The Queen's Page in attendance in the Corridor, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to His Royal Highness.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Nobleman or Gentleman who proposes to be presented, must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Levee, a card with his name written thereon, and with the name of the Nobleman or Gentleman by whom he is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation that no presentation can be made at a Levee excepting by a person actually attending that Levee, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Nobleman or Gentleman who is to make the presentation, of his intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's command that no presentations shall be made at the Levee, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested, that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to His Royal Highness.

The State apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at one o'clock.

SYDNEY,

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of four hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saltersford-cum-Kettlethulme, in the county of Chester, and in the diocese of Chester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of thirteen pounds six shillings and eight pence, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saltersford-cum-Kettleholme, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of thirteen pounds six shillings and eight pence, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable, in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of three hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Cowgill, in the county of York, and in the diocese of Ripon, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of ten pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Cowgill, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction, one other yearly sum or stipend of ten pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable, in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in consideration of a benefaction of three hundred pounds sterling, which has been paid to us in favour of the vicarage of Saint John the Baptist, Outwood, in the county of Surrey, and in the diocese of Winchester, and in respect of which we have agreed to pay to the Incumbent of the same vicarage, and to his successors, a yearly sum of ten pounds, do hereby, in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, grant to the Incumbent of the said vicarage of Saint John the Baptist, Outwood, and to his successors, to meet such benefaction one other yearly sum or stipend of ten pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the day of the publication of these presents in the London Gazette, and to be receivable in equal half-yearly portions, on the first day of May and on the first day of November in each and every year: Provided always, that if at any time lands, tithes, or other hereditaments sufficient to produce the yearly sum or stipend, so payable out of our common fund, as lastly herein mentioned, or any part thereof, shall be annexed by us to the said vicarage, in substitution for such yearly sum or stipend, or for such part thereof, our liability for the payment of such yearly sum or stipend, or of such part thereof, as the case may be, shall thereupon and thereafter cease and determine.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, sections five and eleven, do hereby grant and appropriate out of our common fund to the vicarage of Appledore, with the chapelry of Ebony annexed, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, one capital sum of one hundred pounds sterling, to be applicable towards defraying the cost of effecting certain improvements in and additions to the parsonage or house of residence of the said vicarage, according to plans and a specification approved by us, such capital sum, or the balance thereof unapplied to such purpose, to remain in the meantime in our hands at interest after the rate of three pounds per centum per annum, and such interest to be paid to the Incumbent for the time being of the said vicarage of Appledore with Ebony.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

WE, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the twenty-ninth and thirtieth years of Her Majesty, chapter one hundred and eleven, section five, do hereby, subject as hereinafter mentioned, grant to the Incumbent for the time being of the vicarage of Saint Margaret at Cliffe with West Cliffe, in the county of Kent, and in the diocese of Canterbury, one yearly sum or stipend of one hundred and twenty pounds, such yearly sum or stipend to be payable out of the common fund under our control, and to be calculated as from the thirteenth day of February, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two, and to be receivable in four equal portions, on the first day of February, the first day of May, the first day of August, and the first day of November, in each and every year: Provided always, that the annual sum or stipend so granted by us to the Incumbent of the said vicarage shall be paid only upon the production to us, on or after each of the said lastly-mentioned days, in each and every year, of a certificate, under the hand of the Archbishop of Canterbury, that an Assistant-Curate, duly licensed by such Archbishop, has been employed within the parishes of Saint Margaret at Cliffe and West Cliffe aforesaid during the quarter of the year then ended, and is in receipt of a salary after a rate of not less than one hundred and twenty pounds per annum: Provided also, that such yearly sum or stipend shall continue payable as aforesaid so long only as may to us appear to be expedient under the circumstances from time to time affecting the said vicarage of Saint Margaret at Cliffe with West Cliffe.

In witness whereof, we have hereunto set our common seal, this twenty-first day of March, in the year one thousand eight hundred and seventy-two.

(L.S.)

Official Notice.—Proposal to Change a Ship's Name.

JAMES BEAZLEY, of 11, Rumford-street, Liverpool, hereby give notice, on behalf of the British Shipowners' Company Limited, that in consequence of the word British forming a prominent part of the names of the ships of the said Company, it is our intention to apply to the Board of Trade under Section 6 of the Merchant Shipping Act, 1871, in respect to the ship "Glen Sannox," of Liverpool, official number 63230, of gross tonnage 1655 tons, of register tonnage 1580.72 tons, heretofore owned by Samuel Johnston and Co., of Liverpool for permission to change her name to "British King," to be registered under the said new name at the Port of Liverpool as owned by the British Shipowners' Company Limited.

Any objections to the proposed change of name must be sent to the Assistant-Secretary, Marine Department, Board of Trade, within fifteen days from the appearance of this advertisement.

Dated at Liverpool, this 23rd day of March, 1872.

JAMES BEAZLEY,
Managing Director.

Abandonment of Wiltshire Railway.

NOTICE is hereby given, that in pursuance of "The Abandonment of Railways Act, 1850," and "The Railway Companies Act, 1867," Henry Danby Seymour, one of the sureties to the bond conditioned for the completion of the railway authorized by "The Wiltshire Railway Act, 1865," has made application in writing to the Board of Trade, setting forth that he is desirous that the railway by the said Act authorized to be made should be abandoned, that is to say:—

First. "A railway (No. 1) commencing in the parish of Idmiston, in the county of Wilts, by a junction with the London and South-Western Railway, and terminating in the parish of Pewsey, in the same county.

832. Andrew Barclay Walker, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, for an invention of "improvements in apparatus for producing and for applying heated air to various useful purposes."—Dated 18th March, 1869.
834. John Cox, of Gorgie Mills, in the county of Edinburgh, for an invention of "improvements in velocipedes and modes of propulsion."—Dated 18th March, 1869.
835. Edward Augustus Inglefield, of Grove End-road, St. John's Wood, in the county of Middlesex, Captain in the Royal Navy, for an invention of "improvements in steering apparatus worked by hydrostatic pressure."—Dated 19th March, 1869.
836. John Thomas, of Middlesbrough-on-Tees, in the county of York, William Bacon, of the town and county of Newcastle-upon-Tyne, and Harrison Groves, of Redcar, in the county of York, for an invention of "improvements in the manufacture of iron and steel, and in furnaces and apparatus employed therein."—Dated 19th March, 1869.
838. Augusto Albini, of Genoa, and also of No. 1, New Broad-street-buildings, in the city of London, Captain in the Royal Italian Navy, for an invention of "improvements in repeating or revolving fire-arms."—Dated 19th March, 1869.
840. James Jack, of Liverpool, in the county of Lancaster, Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in the construction of ships to adapt them for auxiliary screw propellers."—Dated 19th March, 1869.
843. Alfred Vincent Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Mechanical Draughtsman, for an invention of "improvements in obtaining motive power for sewing and other machines."—Communicated to him from abroad by Jacob Zuckermann, of San Francisco, in the State of California, United States of America.—Dated 19th March, 1869.
844. William Robert Lake, of the "International Patent Office," No. 8, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Consulting Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in water-proof overshoes."—Communicated to him from abroad by Augustus Osborn Bourn, of Providence, Rhode Island, United States of America.—Dated 19th March, 1869.
846. Silvester Rait Wybrants, of Dundee, in the county of Forfar, North Britain, for an invention of "improvements in the manufacture of textile fabrics."—Dated 19th March, 1869.
848. Francis Dixon Nuttall, of St. Helens, in the county of Lancaster, Glass Manufacturer, for an invention of "improvements in or applicable to reverberatory furnaces."—Dated 20th March, 1869.
849. James Darsie Morrison, residing at 27, Grange-road, Edinburgh, in the county of Mid Lothian, North Britain, Surgeon Dentist, for an invention of "improvements in heating and ventilating buildings and ships by apparatus for warming, circulating, and purifying air and water, and for employing the same as sanitary agents, also applicable for cooking purposes."—Dated 20th March, 1869.
850. Henry Whitehouse, of Tipton, in the county of Stafford, Engineer and Iron Founder, and William Probert, of Oldbury, in the county of Worcester, Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in tuyeres for blast furnaces, forges, and for other furnaces."—Dated 20th March, 1869.
856. Henry Edward Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in apparatus for measuring liquids."—Communicated to him from abroad by Gideon Blackburn Massey, in the city and State of New York, United States of America.—Dated 20th March, 1869.
857. Henry Edward Newton, of the Office for Patents, 66, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Civil Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in motive power engines."—Communicated to him from abroad by Joseph Edwin Culver, of Hudson, in the State of New Jersey, United States of America.—Dated 20th March, 1869.
858. William Henry Phillips, of Nunhead, in the county of Surrey, Engineer, for an invention of "improvements in apparatus for containing and discharging water, or other fluid for extinguishing fires, and for other purposes."—Dated 22nd March, 1869.
859. William Robert Lake, of the "International Patent Office," No. 8, Southampton-buildings, Chancery-lane, in the county of Middlesex, Consulting Engineer, for an invention of "an improved hay tedding machine."—Communicated to him from abroad by Lyman Hall Tasker, of Boston, Massachusetts, United States of America.—Dated 22nd March, 1869.
864. William George Crossley, of the town of Cambridge, for an invention of "improvements in the construction of wheels."—Dated 22nd March, 1869.
868. James Combe and James Barbour, both of Belfast, in the Kingdom of Ireland, for an invention of "improvements in transmitting rotary motion applicable specially to machinery for preparing and spinning flax and other fibrous substances."—Dated 22nd March, 1869.
871. Munson Sigler, of Paterson, in the county of Passaic, in the State of New Jersey, and the United States of America, for an invention of "improvements in mechanism for regulating the tension of the warp in weaving looms."—Dated 22nd March, 1869.
