

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

TUESDAY, APRIL 16, 1872.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
March 26, 1872.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that Her Majesty's Birthday will be kept on Saturday, the 1st of June, instead of Wednesday, the 15th of May next.

*Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace,
April 2, 1872.*

NOTICE is hereby given, that The Queen will hold Drawing Rooms at Buckingham Palace, on Tuesday, the 23rd of April next, and on Monday, the 6th of May, at three o'clock.

N.B. The Knights of the several Orders are to appear in their Collars at the Drawing Room on the 23rd of April, it being a Collar-Day.

REGULATIONS

TO BE OBSERVED AT THE QUEEN'S DRAWING ROOMS AT BUCKINGHAM PALACE.

By Her Majesty's Command.

The Ladies, who propose to attend Her Majesty's Drawing Rooms, at Buckingham Palace, are requested to bring with them two large cards, with their names clearly written thereon, one to be left with the Queen's Page in Attendance, and the other to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, who will announce the name to The Queen.

PRESENTATIONS.

Any Lady who proposes to be presented to The Queen must leave at the Lord Chamberlain's Office, St. James's Palace, before twelve o'clock, two clear days before the Drawing Room, a card with her name written thereon, and with the name of the Lady by whom she is to be presented. In order to carry out the existing regulation, that no presentation can be made at a Drawing Room excepting by a Lady actually attending that Court, it is also necessary that an intimation from the Lady who is to make the presentation, of her intention to be present, should accompany the presentation card above referred to, which will be submitted to The Queen for Her Majesty's approbation. It is Her Majesty's Command, that no presentations shall be made at the Drawing Room, except in accordance with the above regulations.

It is particularly requested that in every case the names be very distinctly written upon the cards to be delivered to the Lord Chamberlain, in order that there may be no difficulty in announcing them to The Queen.

It is not expected that Gentlemen will present themselves at Drawing Rooms, except in attendance on the Ladies of their families.

Any Gentleman who under these circumstances should desire to be presented to The Queen, will observe the same regulations as are in force for Her Majesty's Levees.

The State Apartments will be open for the reception of Company coming to Court at two o'clock.

SYDNEY,
Lord Chamberlain.

*Board of Trade, Whitehall,
April 12, 1872.*

THE Right Honourable the Lords of the Committee of Privy Council for Trade have received, from the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, a copy of a Despatch from the Governor of British Guiana, inclosing the subjoined amended Quarantine Rules framed by the Quarantine Board of that Colony.

QUARANTINE RULES.

FOR THE MAIL STEAMERS.

(3rd August, 1870.)

1. Every mail steamer shall be visited at the light ship by a pilot, who is authorised and required to enquire whether the steamer has or has had any case or cases of infectious or contagious disease, in respect of which quarantine may be enforced under "The Quarantine Ordinance, 1870," on board such steamer during the voyage, or whether such steamer has come from, or had any communication during such voyage with, any port or place where any such infectious or contagious disease exists, or has received on board any person, baggage, or goods from any such port or place, either from the shore or from any steamer or other vessel. If any of the foregoing questions are answered in the affirmative, or if the master or medical officer of such steamer refuse to answer any of them, the pilot will direct the steamer to proceed to and anchor at the quarantine ground.

2. Such steamer shall then be visited by the harbour master or visiting officer, who shall proceed in all respects in accordance with the 10th, 11th, and 17th sections of "The Quarantine Ordinance, 1870."

3. If the Quarantine Board shall decide that such steamer is to remain in quarantine, then all parts of "The Quarantine Ordinance, 1870," or of any of the general or special rules made by the Board, with the consent of the Governor and Court of Policy, relating to the enforcing and duration of quarantine, and the imposition of penalties for any breach of quarantine or other offences created by the said ordinance, and all such penalties shall apply to the master and all persons on board such steamer as fully as to the master and persons on board any other vessel in quarantine.

Mails.

4. The mails shall be landed from any such steamer under the following restrictions, or any other which may be from time to time substituted by the Quarantine Board:—They shall be first fumigated on board the steamer and then lowered into the harbour master's boat, and the harbour master, together with the health officer, shall again fumigate them before they are brought on shore and landed. The mails to be taken from the Post Office to the steamer shall be carried alongside by the harbour master and hoisted from his boat into the steamer by the crew of the steamer. The harbour master will on these occasions take care that there is no communication between his boat's crew and any one on board the steamer.

Coaling.

5. The punts or other vessels containing coals are to be taken to a convenient place near the steamer, and anchored there. They will be brought alongside by the steamer's crew, who will conduct the loading, and re-anchor them in the same place, from whence they will be brought on shore by the shore crew.

Cargo.

6. Cargo for the colony is to be lowered into a punt or other vessel taken alongside the steamer by the harbour master. The goods will then be fumigated and allowed to remain at least twenty-four hours in such punt or vessel before they are landed.

Goods for exportation in the steamer must be conveyed on board in the same manner as is provided for coals for consumption.

N.B. The rules with regard to "coaling" and "cargo" may be from time to time altered by the Quarantine Board as occasion may require.

Passengers.

7. When any mail steamer is placed in quarantine, the passengers for this colony are to be removed in the steamer's boats to whatever vessel or building is provided under the 28th section of "The Quarantine Ordinance, 1870," as a lazaretto, and all the provisions of the said ordinance which relate to persons on board any vessel placed in quarantine, are to apply to such passengers as fully as to such persons.

8. All persons performing quarantine in such lazaretto shall be boarded at the expense of the colony, the charges not to exceed in any case more than three dollars per diem.

9. All persons offending against any of the foregoing rules and regulations shall be liable to a penalty not less than twenty-four dollars, and not exceeding two hundred and forty dollars; all such penalties shall be sued for, recovered, and appropriated as directed by the 34th and 35th sections of "The Quarantine Ordinance, 1870."

FOR ALL OTHER VESSELS.

1. All vessels on board of which any person shall be sick, or shall have been sick, of any contagious or infectious disease, in respect of which quarantine may be enforced under "The Quarantine Ordinance, 1870," or shall have died of such diseases within fourteen days before the arrival of any such vessel at this colony, shall remain in quarantine for a period not exceeding fourteen days from the day when such sickness shall cease, or shall have ceased, or from the day when such death shall have occurred, as may be directed by the Quarantine Board.—(3rd August, 1870.)

2. All vessels that shall have sailed from, or touched at, any infected place, or shall have any person on board who shall have come from any such place, shall remain in quarantine for such period not exceeding fourteen days as shall be directed by the Quarantine Board.—(3rd August, 1870.)

3. If, during the continuance of a vessel in quarantine, any person on board such vessel falls sick of any contagious or infectious disease as aforesaid, such vessel shall be liable to remain in quarantine for a further period not exceeding fourteen days from the day when such sickness shall cease, as shall be directed by the Quarantine Board.—(3rd August, 1870.)

4. All vessels on board of which any person shall be sick, or shall have been sick, of small pox, or shall have died of such disease before the arrival of any such vessel, at this colony, shall remain in quarantine for such a period as may be directed by the Quarantine Board.—(26th May, 1871.)

5. If, during the continuance of a vessel in quarantine, any person on board such vessel falls sick of small pox, such vessel shall be liable to remain in quarantine for such further period as shall be directed by the Quarantine Board.—(26th May, 1871.)

6. Any vessel that shall have sailed from, or touched at, any place which shall be deemed under the provisions of the Quarantine Ordinance, 1870, an infected place on account of the prevalence of the disease of small pox, shall remain in quarantine for such a period not exceeding forty days from the date of her arrival in the colony as may be ordered and directed by the Quarantine Board.—(1st February, 1872.)
